SPRECKLES TELLS OF THE SUGAR WAR

Relates the Struggle Which Resulted in Combining the Big Concerns.

WAS GREEK AGAINST GREEK

Havemeyer Controlled the East and Spreckles the West—Son of Sugar Magnate Before the House Committee.

Washington, June 26.—Details of a great sugar war in the early nineties between Claus Spreckles in the West, and Henry O. Havemeyer, in the East, resulting in an alliance between those two sugar sovereigns, were related today to the Sugar Trust Investigating Committee of the House by John D. Spreckles, son of the Pacific sugar magnate and president of the Western Sugar Refining Company, of San Francisco.

"When Claus Spreckles met Henry O. Havemeyer, in that old sugar war," asked Representative Madison, of the witness, "it was a contest of Greek against Greek, was it not?"

"It certainly was a fight."

"Your father was a masterful man in the sugar industry, was he not?"

"He was to the Pacific coast what Henry O. Havemeyer was to the Atlantic."

"Wasn't he a monarch over the sugar industry."

"In a lawful way, he was," said Mr. Spreckles. "We always aim to carry on our business in a lawful manner."

Mr. Spreckles then described how, during the sugar war, his father invaded the Eastern territory and erected a great cane sugar refinery in Philadelphia. That brought about the culmination of the fight.

"Who was the first of those two masters to throw up his hands?" Mr. Madison resumed.

"I think it was Havemeyer," said Mr. Spreckles. "When we entered the East in that fight, of course, both my father and Mr. Havemeyer realized that they were losing money. They came to their senses, and, in short, came together and concluded that such a fight was of no use. It resulted in a consolidation of the plants in the East and the formation of the Western Sugar Refining Company, of California, which took over the American Sugar Refining Company plant and our plant there. The American plant in the West was closed down. Each side took a half interest in the new company. In the East the entire Philadelphia Spreckles plant was eventually sold to the American Sugar Refining Company. That was, I think in 1892.

"After that there never was any competition between Spreckles and Havemeyer, was there?" Mr. Madison inquired.

"No, but there has since been plenty of other competition."

Mr. Spreckles also described how Mr. Havemeyer became associated with them in 1897 in the Spreckles Beet Sugar Company in the erection of the largest beet sugar plant in the world.

He further related this history of an agreement in 1903 between the Western Sugar Refining Company with a rival concern, the California-Hawaiian Sugar Company, whereby the plant of the latter was leased by the former and shut down for three years. Eventually it was turned back to the original owners and is again a competitor. This transaction, Mr. Spreckles said, he was advised by counsel, was not a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The witness declared that in his opinion free trade in sugar would ruin the beet sugar business and, he prophesied that with the tariff on sugar let alone, the State of California alone could furnish enough sugar from beets to supply the entire United States and to warrant the tariff protection of the industry.

In answer to questions by Representative Hines, Mr. Spreckles declared that the American Sugar Refining Company did not have a monopoly on the sugar business of the country.

"If their motive in coming to California was to monopolize the sugar business, they did not succeed," Mr. Spreckles declared.

"Well, the American Sugar Refining Company having half of your stock, are you conscious of competition with them in Missouri river territory?" asked Mr. Hinds.

"Oh, yes," was the reply, "we compete with their New Orleans and New York output in that territory."

"Well, does not the American Sugar Refining Company, owning half the stock of the Western Sugar Refining Company, have a veto power in that company?"

"No. My brother, my son, our attorney and myself are on the board of directors and dominate the affairs of the company. They can't veto us or put us out."

Interest in the hearing today was enlivened by the appearance of Joseph E. Smith, president of the Mormon Church, and president of the Utah-Idaho Sugar Company, an alliance of the Mormons and the American Sugar Refining Company. He arrived with Bishop C. N. Nibley, business manager of the Mormon Church and Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah.

President Smith will be a witness tomorrow before the committee. He came prepared to testify today, and his arrival having been heralded, the committee room soon was well filled with spectators, among them many women.

THE FIGHT FOR RECIPROCITY

Determined Effort to Advance the Measure Begins Today—Root Amendment Out of Way—Before The Senate.

Washington, June 26.—A persistent and perhaps day by day effort, beginning tomorrow to advance the Canadian reciprocity bill in the Senate by getting unanimous consent to fix a definite time for a vote on it, and, on separate dates, on the House wool and free list bills as well, will be made by Chairman Penrose, of the Senate Finance Committee. He does not count upon immediate success for his efforts, however.

With the Root amendment to the wood pulp and printpaper schedule of the bill disposed of to his satisfaction, Mr. Penrose, after a canvas of the Senate, announced that his plan had met with more encouragement than he had anticipated.

The stand-pat Republicans made little or no objection and the Democrats none, but generally the insurgent Republicans were not agreable to the proposition. They want time to present the issues fully to the country and to the Senate.

Even these objections Mr. Penrose hopes to overcome in time, and if his first request tomorrow is not acceded to he will repeat it day after day.

"We shall at least succeed in informing the public where the objection to action lies," he said, 'and if we succeed to that extent our efforts will not have been in vain."

There is some apprehension among Republican Senators that the wool bill might pass if a vote should be reached, but they feel assured that in the vent of such a contingency the President would veto the measure under his promise to postpone all tariff legislation until a report can be received from the tariff board.

During the day there was a general tightening up of the lines in favor of the reciprocity bill. The friends of the measure on the Democratic side continued to canvass of the situation and when the Senate adjourned declared that no future amendment would receive more than five Democratic votes. The Democratic Senators classed against the bill and favorable to amendments are:

Bailey, Simmons, Clarke, of Arkansas; Thornton and Foster, and some of these are ranked as doubtful.

Longer hours are in prospect. The Finance Committee will soon ask that the sittings of the Senate begin at 11 o'clock in the hope that business will be expedited. The argument in support of the change is that as there is no committee meetings standing in the way of prolonged Senate sessions, all possible time should be given to reciprocity.

RIVAL OARSMEN GATHER.

Collegiate Regatta on Hudson Today Big Event of Season.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 26.—The eve of the collegiate regatta in the Hudson found the rival oarsmen resting at their quarters along the river, but eager for tomorrow's contests. The long period of training ended this afternoon with light workouts.

In Poughkeepsie every train brought enthusiastic collegians and followers of the sport who eagerly discussed the chances of the various crews.

Cornell's prowess in the past naturally made the Ithacans the favorites. Columbia and Pennsylvania, as the result of good form shown in practice here, are looked upon as formidable rivals.

While there was no public betting tonight, individual wagers showed odds of five to three, Cornell against the field.

All of the crews in the 'varsity race are somewhat lighter than in former years.

With the exception of the Wisconsin men, who have had bad luck during their training season, a spirit of confidence prevailed in the camps tonight.

BALLOON FALLS INTO THE SEA.

Aerial Craft With Two Occupants is Swept Out During Violent Storm.

Bremen, Germany, June 26.—One of the four balloons which ascended at Paris on Saturday, fell into the North Sea near the Island of Juist, of the East Friscan group, yesterday. A violent storm prevailed at the time, and the aerial craft was carried rapidly out to sea. Two persons were aboard her.

The three other balloons made landings on the East Frisian coast. A rescue boat was sent out as soon as possible to the aid of the distressed balloon, but later returned, having recovered only an empty ballast bag marked "R. G. B.—70."

AFTER NEAR-BEER.

Anti-Saloon League Campaign for Repeal of Clause of Locker Clubs.

Atlanta, Ga., June 25.—A State-wide movement having for its object the repeal of the near-beer clause and the abolition of locker clubs, was launched throughout Georgia today by the Georgia Anti-Saloon League. Letters had been sent to the pastors of all the churches in the State and these were read at today's services. Resolutions accompanying the letters also were presented to the congregations. These approved the proposed near-beer bill and called upon the several Senators and Representatives to work and vote for its passage.

BIG COAL CLAIMS ARE NOT GRANTED

Scheme of Syndicate to Control Valuable Alaskan Fields Defeated.

GOVERNMENT TAKES ACTION

Morgan-Guggenheim Syndicate Threaten to Carry Matter to Supreme Court—Caused Ballinger-Pinchot Trouble.

Washington, June 26.—The disallowance today of the famous Cunningham Aleskan coal land claims by the Department of the Interior defeats the plan through which it was alleged the Morgan-Guggenheim syndicate had planned to control the dominating section of one of the world's most valuable coal fields. Secretary of the Interior Fisher, by approving the Department's decision as handed down by Fred Dennett, commissioner of the land office, has restored to the public domain the 33 Cunningham claims involving an aggregate area of 5,250 acres and running in value high in the millions.

While attorneys for the Cunningham claimants have threatened an appeal to the United States Supreme Court, such an appeal can be based only on some point of law involved and not on findings of fact as announced by the Department. The Cunningham claims, which brought about the Ballinger-Pinchot investigation by Congress and the dismissal from public service of Chief Forester Pinchot and Louis R. Glavis, have been in the public eye constantly for, more than two years.

In announcing the decision today, Secretary Fisher, who succeeded Mr. Ballinger last March, declared that new coal lands are needed in Alaska. He said in part:

"It is the intention of the Department to proceed at once to final determination of all the remaining Alaskan coal claims so far as this can properly be done, denying those that should be denied and granting those that should be granted as rapidly as possible."

Commissioner Dennett, in his decision holding the claims for cancellation on the ground of fraud, declares that each of the 33 entries was improperly allowed because of fatal defects "apparent on their face." He asserts that the government conclusively established the charges brought against the claimants, and that there is no doubt but that an agreement existed among them in violation of law.

Guggenheim Remains Mum.

New York, June 26.—Daniel Guggenheim, head of the Guggenheim family, who will sail for Europe tomorrow, refused to discuss the Cunningham claims decision tonight, but expressed at length his opinion of business conditions in the United States. "At the time when we ought to be enjoying the greatest prosperity of any country in the world," he said, "we are the laughing stock of all European economists because every so-called captain of industry is supposed to be liable to criminal prosecution.

"We are not happy" he continued. "Our finances are good, money is plentiful, our harvests have been abundant, we have had no pests, no calamities such as fires or earthquakes—but we are not happy."

He attributed this to the fact that the officers of large corporations do not know where they stand. He said he could not find that the officers of corporations in foreign countries were being prosecuted for co-operating with each other or for syndicating their products and are enjoying excellent business conditions, "whereas, we, during the last two years, have been and now are doing not to exceed from 60 to 70 per cent. of our actual business capacity."

TWO HUNDRED KILLED.

In Cyclone Which Devastated Coast of Chile Yesterday.

Valparaiso, June 25.—The great cyclone which devastated the coast of Chile a few days ago extended from Pisagua on the north to Antofagasta on the south. Torrential rains followed the hurricane, almost completing the disaster. It is estimated that more than 200 persons were killed or injured and immense damage has been done to property of all kinds.

Reports here say that Iquique has been inundated. Many vessels in addition to launches and lighters have foundered. Incoming steamers report having passed buoys adrift, cargo and derelicts.

REGATTA BIG SUCCESS.

Between Midshipmen and Blue Jackets at Queenstown.

Queenstown, June 26.—The regatta arranged for the midshipmen and blue jackets of the United States practice squadron proved a great success today. The mishipmen of the battleships Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts competed in 12-oared cutters for a silver cup and the championship of Queenstown harbor, and the Iowa boys won. The Iowa's seamen also won the other prizes.

The senior officers of the squadron attended a ball at the admiralty house tonight. The ships will sail for Kiel tomorrow.

AFTER LABOR LEADERS AGAIN

Officers of Federation Cited to Appear in Contempt Proceedings—Samuel Gompers is the Chief Offender.

Washington, June 26.—President Samuel Gompers, Vice President John Mitchell and Secretary Frank Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, under rules issued today by Justice Wright, of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, were cited to appear Monday, July 17th, and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court.

The court's action followed the filing of the report of a committee of lawyers appointed to investigate the charge that an injunction granted by the court in favor of the Bucks Stove & Range Company had been violated. In case the labor leaders are adjudged guilty it is yet an open question whether the court will impose a jail sentence.

The committee's report presented by Chairman J. J. Darlington, submits that "there is reasonable cause to charge each of these parties with wilful defiance of the orders of the court."

However, it is suggested that the labor leaders acted under belief that they were within their constitutional rights, and the committee virtually recommends that due apologies and assurances of future submission if they be forthcoming, settle the matter.

Mr. Gompers is dealt with as the chief offender. It is probable that the cases will not be heard before Fall in the event another trial becomes necessary.

The contempt proceedings against the labor leaders recently were passed upon by the United States Supreme Court which set aside jail sentences heretofore imposed by Judge Wright. The Supreme Court held that the contempt on which Judge Wright formerly passed was of a civil nature and against the Buck Stove & Range Co.

In dismissing the former proceedings, however, the Supreme Court gave to the District Court a right to re-open the case in the event that any contempt of the court itself or its orders, should be found.

Inasmuch as the stove company and the American Federation of Labor had adjusted their differences, it was not supposed that the matter would be pursued further. But the day following the decision Justice Wright immediately ordered an investigation with a view to further contempt action against the labor men. He appointed a committee of three lawyers to inquire into all the circumstances of the case, and to determine whether or not there had been a contempt of the court itself. The committee consisted of J. J. Darlington, Daniel Davenport and James M. Beck. Samuel Gompers, in a statement, at once questioned the fairness of an inquiry by these gentlemen inasmuch as they had been associated as counsel for the stove company against the Federation.

BEAUMONT WINS EVENT.

Huge Crowds Witnessed Aero Flight at Brussels.

Brussels, June 26.—The huge crowds which gathered at the aerodrome today broke into volleys of cheers as Beaumont, winner of the fourth stage of the International Circuit Aviation Race, arrived at 5:30 o'clock this evening. He was soon followed by Vedrines, Kimmerling and Garros.

All the aviators told of having been buffeted by violent winds and drenched by rain. They were presented to the King, who warmly congratulated them on their achievement.

Vedrines was the object of a special ovation and was presented with a laurel wreath inscribed, "to the victor of the Paris-Madrid race."

Up to 9 o'clock tonight when the official records were closed, seven of the contestants had reached here.

Of the other contestants Tauleau wrecked his machine near Gilze-Ryen, a short distance from the Belgian frontier; Vidart Prevot and Train are stalled by bad weather at the same place, while Wynmalen is at Brasschaet, about 35 miles from Brussels. All of the contestants expect to start again tomorrow morning.

FUNK'S TESTIMONY PROVES SENSATION

Witness at Lorimer Inquiry Says Detectives Have Been Shadowing Him.

FEATURE DAY OF THE PROBE

Name of Edward Hines Mentioned by Funk as Person Who Employed Sleuths—Committee in Executive Session.

Washington, June 26.—Shadowed for weeks by detectives instructed to get anything possible against him was the alleged experience of which Clarence S. Funk, of Chicago, star witness in the present Lorimer investigation, complained today to the Senate Committee inquiring into the Lorimer election. The statement produced a sensation, because the name of Edward Hines, whom Mr. Funk had testified had asked him to contribute $10,000 toward "$100,000 used to put Lorimer over at Springfield," was mentioned in connection with the services of the detectives.

Mr. Funk declared that four detectives had followed him to Washington and two had watched him during luncheon today. One of them, he said, had been compelled to give his name and that of his employer when caught in a tight place. Mr. Funk declined to break his word to the detective and reveal his name. He said the employer was not Senator Lorimer. The committee ended the day's hearing by going into executive session to consider the situation.

At the executive session Mr. Funk is said to have revealed the detective's name and promised to produce him before the committee, tomorrow if possible. The committee then took up a consideration of what steps to take to prevent detectives inferring with witnesses before the committee.

Mr. Funk's statement that the detectives came at the close of a long examination on the witness stand. He retold the story he related to the Helm Investigating Committee in Illinois about how Mr. Hines is alleged to have asked him as general manager of the International Harvested Company, to contribute $10,000 to the Lorimer fund. For hours attorneys and members of the committee had asked question after question of him about this conversation, the report of which probably led to the present investigation of the Lorimer election. The witness had described his personal relations to Senator Lorimer, Mr. Hines and many others figuring in the case.

Rather incidentally Mr. Funk remarked in answer to a question that his part in the case had been anything but pleasant, that had been promised more "unpleasantness."

"Promised more?" repeated Senator Jones.

"Yes, over the telephone and by anonymous communications, indirect threats have been made."

Then in response to inquiries of Senator Kenyon, Mr. Funk said he had been followed by detectives ever since he testified at Springfield before the Helms Committee.

Mr. Funk told about the detective following him to Washington and about getting the name of one of them. He said, the detective he had cornered claimed to be employed by the Thiele Detective Agency in Chicago, and had been instructed to get anything he could on Mr. Funk. He protested against being made to reveal the detective's name because "he seemed like a nice fellow," said he was not proud of what he was doing and had a family to support."

To tell his name, Mr. Funk said, would mean his dismissal.

"If you don't tell it, all four will probably lose their jobs," suggested Senator Gamble.

William J. Hynes, of counsel for Senator Lorimer and Edward Hines, urged the witness to reveal the name.

"Put Mr. Edward Hines on the stand, and ask him to whom the detectives report each night," responded Mr. Funk.

Attorney Elbridge Hanecy, of counsel for Senator Lorimer asked if the detective said the Senator employed them.

"No, Senator Lorimer did not employ them," declared the witness.

The committee then went into executive session.

AN IMPORTANT WITNESS

F. D. Ware Tells How Ware-Kramer Co. Cigarettes Sales Increased Enormously Until 1907 and Suddenly Collapsed.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 26.—Plaintiff F. D. Ware, was on the witness stand in the damage suit trial of Ware-Kramer Company vs. American Tobacco Company, this afternoon, and two days or longer will be required to finish with him. He reviewed the organization of the Ware-Kramer Company, the volume manufactured and sales of cigarettes in the rise of ouput from thirty four million cigarettes in 1905 to sixty-seven million in 1907, and collapse to thirty million in 1909. Also sales to jobbers the country over to show decline in trade established through American Tobacco Company coupons, free goods and other methods. Judge Connor refused to admit testimony by Ware to prove that R. G. Briggs, president of Wells-Whitehead Co., the Wilson branch of the American Tobacco Company, made overtures to stop the formation of Ware-Kramer Company, advising Ware it was impossible to 'buck the government," as he termed the American Tobacco Company.

Counsel for the plaintiff gave notice of withdrawal for present the deposition of Jno. Troustine, of New York, partially presented Friday. This evidence extends to the alleged American Tobacco Company, and W. M. Carter conspiracy against the Ware-Kramer Company and has precipitated difference between counsel and the court that may play an important part in the result of the trial.

STOLE $10,000 IN BONDS.

Attorney and Office Clerk Arrested Yesterday at Pittsburg.

Pittsburg, June 26.—A. L. Pearson, an attorney, and president of the Union Realty Company, of this city, and Emanuel M. Carnahan, a clerk, empolyed in the office of Holmes Wardop & Company, brokers, were arrested here late today, charged with the theft of bonds valued at $10,000, belonging to the brokerage firm.

Pearson is a member of a prominent Pearson, commanded the State troops family. His father, General A. L. here during the railroad riots of 1877.

Both men were committed to jail in default of $12,000 bail each. It is stated that $5,000 worth of the bonds have been recovered and the balance have been traced. Charges of larceny and receiving stolen goods were made against Pearson and Carnahan by Joseph H. Holmes, senior member of the brokerage firm.

The bonds in question disappeared from the company's office on November 13, 1908, at a time when Mr. Holmes was in New York, and Mr. Wardrop on a business trip in the West. The case was then put into the hands of a detective agency. A week ago the bonds were offered for sale in New York. The sale was allowed to go through.

Today Pearson and Carnahan were confronted by officers in the former's office. Carnahan at once accused Pearson of having the bonds, and both were arrested.

According to Carnahan, he found the bundle of bonds—gold debenture coupons of the Delaware & Hudson Railroad—lying in the hallway outside the firm's offices, late in the afternoon of November 13th. He picked them up, he said, and seeing they were bonds, took them to Pearson's office, several floors above, to see if they were worth anything. He left the bonds with Pearson, he alleges, receiving no money whatever, and Pearson promised to look them up.

When the bonds were missed by his employers, Carnahan says, he was so frightened for fear of being arrested that he did not tell any one of his find. Pearson, he alleges, refused to talk with him about the bonds, or give them back to him.

Pearson stated tonight that he had purchased the bonds from John D. Hite. He says he did not know they had been stolen, and he fully expects to be cleared.

Just who "John D. Hite" is has not been made clear.

Both Pearson and Carnahan were released on bail tonight and will be given a preliminary hearing before a police magistrate next Thursday.

HIS MEMORY RETURNING.

Mark W. Harrington at Last Responds to His Right Name.

New York, June 26.—Mark W. Harrington, formerly a professor in the University of Michigan, and later chief of the United States Weather Bureau, who has been an inmate of the New Jersey State asylum at Morris Plains for nine years, has shown a sign of returning memory, according to an announcement made today by Dr. Britton D. Evans, superintendent of the institution. During the entire period of his residence at Morris Plains Mr. Harrington has declared that he was "John Doe," and knew nothing more than this concerning himself, but within the past few days, he has responded to his correct name.

Dr. Evans made the test and will make others soon, he said today prior to testifying in proceedings brought by Mrs. Harrington to have herself appointed a committee of her husband's estate. Certain feature of Mr. Harrington's affliction is his failure to recognize his wife and his declaration that she is a stranger, although she searched for him tirelessly for eight years following his disappearance until she found him.

SENATE REJECTED ROOT AMENDMENT

Reciprocity Bill Emerged From its First Ordeal Unscathed Yesterday.

ROLL CALL NOT NECESSARY

Had Reference to Woodpulp and Printpaper Section of Agreement Measure Now Open to General Fight — Features.

Washington, June 26.—The Canadian reciprocity bill emerged from its first ordeal in the Senate tonight unsathed. The Root amendment, proposing a modification of the woodpulp and printpaper section of the agreement, was defeated after seven hours of debate, by an overwhelming vote. The friends of the amendment were so satisfied of its defeat that a roll call on the vote was not demanded.

This leaves the reciprocity measure open to the general fight that is to follow for amendment of important provisions of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. Senator LaFollette announced in a speech opposing the Root amendment, that he would give to the Senate a chance to pass on general tariff amendments for free paper, free lumber and lumber products, and for reductions in many other schedules. Senator Clapp also announced his intention of offering a free paper amendment later; and other Senators gave evidence of their purpose to force from now on consideration of tariff revision on the widest plane.

Attack on the Root amendment was interspersed with attack on the whole reciprocity measure in the debate that ran throughout the afternoon and which resulted in the defeat of Senator Root's proposal to change the House bill by requiring that all Canadian provinces should remove their export restrictions on pulp wood and its product, before the reciprocal features of the woodpulp and printpaper section of the agreement went into effect.

"I am opposed to this so-called reciprocity legislation as a whole because I believe it is wrong, harmful and unjustifiable," said Senator LaFollette.

Senator LaFollette declared there was no justification for any duty on printpaper.

To continue a high tariff on paper, he said, was to put a premium on "inefficiency and sloth," and to make the protective tariff "deaden all constructive force" for the development of efficient management.

Senator LaFollette criticised the newspapers for having urged the reciprocity measure as a means of getting relief from the oppressive charges of the printpaper manufacturers. He said they had joined with the "packers, the railroads, the flour millers and others who would secure advantages through the passage of the reciprocity bill."

Senator LaFollette declared that in the testimony taken by the Finance Committee it would be shown that the newspapers had suppressed the news of the reciprocity procedings; but on this point Senator Stone, who also is a member of the Finance Committee, declared the Wisconsin Senator was mistaken.

"That is the blackest page in the newspaper history of the United States," said Senator LaFollette, "I regret that that fact must become part of the history of this legislation. But it is a stubborn fact. There is no one who followed the hearings before the Finance Committee but knows that those who favored the Canadian agreement were given great space; but when the agricultural interests came before the committee, making a great showing of the injury they would suffer, a showing which I consider the most important made before the committee, the news filled but meagre space in the great newspapers of the country.

"I want to interrupt the Senator," said Senator Stone, "not to defend the newspapers, but because I thing his statement is not quite justified by the facts. It was charged that the Associated Press for example, had given great space to the pro-reciprocity literature and to the pro-reciprocity contentions, which the newpapers had greedily accepted and highly exploited.

"The facts as developed show, as I understand them, that far more space was given the anti-reciprocity arguments by the 'Associated Press,' and by the newspapers of the country than was given by either the one or the other in favor of reciprocity."

Senator LaFollette expressed the belief that other members of the Finance Committee would side with him in the controversy.

Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, opposed the reciprocity bill as a "deception, a delusion and a snare," and said the Root amendment would but make it worse.

Senator Simmons, Democrat, declared the bill was not a Democratic measure.

Elkins, W. Va., June 26.—A serious race war between Americans and Italians is reported to be in progress at Weaver, south of here. Four are reported dead and many reported injured. The sheriff and ninety men have started to the scene.

RACES AT HIGHWOOD PARK

With Good Weather Great Things Are in Store for Public Next Saturday—New Horses Entered.

The owners, drivers and trainers of the horses entered in the preliminary races held last Saturday and on the Saturday previous at Highwood Park feel highly pleased over the success of the races and with good weather the sport-loving population of Wilmington will have an opportunity this Saturday to see some of the best racing that has ever taken place in this section. The training quarters at Highwood Park are kept in continuous action these days and each day new horses are arriving. Mr. McClellan, of Goshen, Indiana, is in charge of the training stables and is a busy man.

Grounds at the park are in fine shape and it is said that there is no faster track in the country. Some very fast time is expected from the horses at Highwood.

On the 7th and 8th of July, probably the biggest race in this section will be pulled off at Highwood. One thousand dollars will be given in prizes, a 32-piece band will be on hand to enliven the afternoon, and everything will be put into the best of shape for the public's convenience so that Wilmingtonians can feel extremely proud of the progressive and public-spirited citizens who have brought the Wilmington Driving Association to the point of success that it now has proven to be.

FOUND RELIC IN GARDEN.

Gold Charm Discovered by Asheville Citizen—Freight Wrecked.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., June 26.—What is supposed to be a comparatively old relic was found in the garden of N. A. Reynolds, on Woodfin street yesterday, in the shape of a seal charm. John W. Reynolds while working in the garden was attracted by a bright piece of metal and after rubbing the dirt from it discovered that it was a gold charm. He showed it to Mrs. N. A. Reynolds and found that it did not belong to that family and then he brought it to W. W. Goldsmith, the jeweler, on Pack square, who made an examination of it. The charm is of gold, evidently about 18 karats, Mr. Goldsmith says, and it is set with an amethyst on which the seal is engraved. There is also a motto partly around the seal, as follows: "Sempre L' Istesso." The design of the seal proper is a compass, with the letters N. E. S. W. at the cardinal points. The engraving is of course, in the negative.

The design of the charm is rather peculiar and seems to be made up of entwined stems and leaves of the "trifolium." It would be interesting to know if there ever lived a family in this section that had such a seal and motto.

A Southern freight train, in charge of Conductor Bryson, was wrecked near Dendron yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock, resulting in the derailment of five cars. There were no injurites. About 125 feet of track was torn up. The train was just ahead of number 21, the Asheville and Coldsboro train which was delayed several hours. The passengers did not reach Asheville until after 1 o'clock this morning.

NO FAVORITISM SHOWN.

In Coming Presidential Election In Mexico, Says de LaBarra.

Mexico City, June 26.—No favoritism will be shown by the provisional government in the coming presidential election according to President de LaBarra. This was the substance of his reply made this morning to a man who called in regard to the candidacy of General Trevino. General Trevino has never formally announced his candidacy, but a group of his friends are working in his favor. It was to ascertain the attitude of the new government that his partisan called on the chief executive.

He was assured by de LaBarra that no restrictions other than those imposed by the law would be placed upon candidates or partisans during the campaign. All candidates will be free to hold political meetings as in the United States.

By both Madero and de LaBarra, Mexico today is considered entirely at peace. Reports of minor disputes continue to arise from time to time, but they are for the most part local in character and cannot, it is declared, truthfully reflect a spirit of revolution.

UMPIRE KLEM WAS FINED.

Action of President Lynch, of the National League.

St. Louis, Mo., June 26.—President Lynch, of the National Baseball League, tonight announced that, following an investigation and the taking of testimony concerning the blow Umpire Klem struck Roger Bresnahan, manager of the St. Louis team, at the close of last Friday's game in Cincinnati, he would fine the umpire $50.

President Lynch issued the following statement:

"I find that Manager Bresnahan was not playing in the game, and, under the rules, had no business rushing at the umpire to enter a protest. I will not toolerate managers running after the umpires, after the game is over, and will make an example of the next offender.

"Umpire Klem, in striking Manager Bresnahan, forgot the most essential part of an umpire's duties, that of keeping his temper."

GAMBIER SUIT SENSATIONAL.

Husband Treated Her "Like Piece of Stone."—The Honeymoon.

New York, June 26.—The trial of the suit of Mrs. Edith Russell Gambier, a former Atlanta society girl for a separation from Edward Victor Gambier, a banker, was continued before Justice Pendleton in the Supreme Court today. Mrs. Gambier has testified that her husband treated her "like a piece of stone" and seldom embraced or kissed her. At today's session Mrs. Gambier was recalled to the stand. Mrs. Gambier was questioned about card playing, and said she had played cards a few times with the gentleman whose name had been handed to her on a card by counsel. Mrs. Gambier, in reply to an interrogation of counsel said her husband played "solitaire."

Mrs. Annie P. Adams, who spent two days at Munich and Oberammergau with the Gambiers, while they were on their honeymoon, testified that Mrs. Gambier did not act like a newly married woman. "I told her," Mrs. Adams said, "that she did not seem to love her husband. She shrugged her shoulders and replied that she didn't. I asked her why under the sun she had married him, and she said because she wanted to live in New York." Mr. Gambier, however, was "continually solicitous regarding Mrsfi Gambier's comfort," she concluded.

A batch of 40 letters, written by Gambier during their courtship was introduced. One, dated February 5, 1910, and addressed to her at Atlanta, Ga., expressed Gambier's unwillingness to send her an engagement ring by express.

"Do you know, my precious, that to send an engagement ring to one's fiancee by express seems like an awfully cold proposition?" the letter read. "All the sweet and loving sentiment that must need be a part of the ceremony of a presentation and placing of the ring on the fair lady's finger is absent. I will not see an express driver be a cupid's messenger between me and my loved one."

Edward Victor Gambier, the banker, took the witness stand late today in the divorce suit brought against him by Edith Russell Gambier, a former Atlanta society girl, to refute her charge that she had spent a kissless honeymoon. He had not gone far in his testimony, however, when adjournment was taken and he will resume his story tomorrow morning.

"I went to Atlanta and she met me at the train with a kiss," Gambier declared. She had rejected him in January, 1909, he said, but accepted him by mail, a year later. "At her home we acted the usual newly engaged act. She sat on my lap and we embraced. She wrote on my shirt bosom: "I love you."

Gambier said he returned to New York the next night and ordered an engagement ring. His bride came to New York later for the wedding ceremony Gambier said.

PASSENGERS ALSO ATTACKED.

Thugs Enter Street Car to Assault Non-Union Cloakmaker.

Cleveland, June 24.—Six men, said to be sympathizers with the striking garment workers, entered a street car last night armed with pieces of gas pipe and severely beat Henry Newman, a non-union cloakmaker, and Harry Hawkins, a special guard, who was escorting Newman to his home.

They also beat several of the passengers who interfered, breaking one man's arm. Miss Viola Untersuber was pushed off the car's rear platform and dragged a hundred feet. She was severely cut and bruised.

Columbus, Ohio, June 26.—The trial of Rodney J. Diegle, sergeant-at-arms of the Ohio Senate, indicted on the charge of acting as go-between for certain members of the Legislature, and Frank S. Harrison, a detective, in soliciting bribes, was resumed today with Roscoe R. Walcott, court stenographer, on the stand. He is expected to testify to notes of conversations of legislators with Harrison that he took over the dictagraph in a room at the hotel. In this room legislators are alleged to have met Harrison and discussed bills and, according to Harrison, accepted bribes from him.

Moving Books.

Many persons complain that their books suffer in transit. The head of a moving company was interviewed on this subject, and he said: "After several years' experimenting with different things for the best conveyance of books I have found that the use of small boxes is by far the most advisable, the smaller the better. These boxes are easily secured for a few cents from your grocer. For storage purposes, where the matter is left to us, we move books in long, narrow boxes fitted with handles made especially for this purpose, but this is not necessary, of course, for the ordinary moving. Barrels simply ruin books, and large boxes filled with heavy volumes have caused more than one strike among our men. They are the clumsiest of all things to handle, as well as the heaviest."

Another mode of moving books is to tie them up in small bundles with stout wrapping paper and heavy twine, leaving enough of the twine to make a loop handle for lifting.—New Idea Woman's Magazine.

The Drummer's Sermon.

"Certainly I will make a few remarks," says the cigar salesman who, because of his solemn garb, has been mistaken for a man of the cloth. Ascending the platform, he says:

"Men are much like cigars. Often you cannot tell by the wrapper what the filler is. Sometimes a good old stogy is more popular than an imported celebrity. Some men are all right in the showcase on display, but are great disappointments when you get them home. No matter how fine a man is, eventually he meets his match. A two-fer often puts on as many airs as a fifty-center. Some men never get to the front at all except during campaigns. Some are very fancy outside and are selected for presents. Others have a rough exterior, but spread cheer and comfort about them because of what is inside. But all men, as all cigars, good or bad, two-fers, stogies or rich or poor, come to ashes at the last."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Origin of Commerce.

Commerce—the international traffic in goods as distinct from domestic traffic—was undoubtedly originated by the wonderful little people known in history as the Phoenicians. The "Yankees of antiquity," the Phoenicians, traded with various peoples long before the other nations had crossed their respective frontiers. All along the shores of the Mediterranean and up the coast of the Atlantic as far north as the British isles their ships were to be found, leaving their manufactures and wonderful dyes and bringing back to Tyre tin, wool and such other articles as paid them to deal in. Creating the merchant marine so long ago that history gives us no account of it, the Phoenicians and their colonists, the Carthaginians, held it until it passed on to Greece and Rome and later along to the republics of modern Italy.—New York American.

A Scotch Anti-golf Law.

Scotland, as everybody knows, is the land where golf originated and the land where it most flourishes. But if the law were strictly enforced north of the Tweed it would go hard with the players of the royal game in "bonnie Scotland." Golf players there may not know it, but they are liable to a sentence of death for their indulgence in their favorite sport. Technically this is literally a fact. In ancient times, when Scotland always had work for her soldiers to do, all young men were required to perfect themselves in archery. They preferred to play golf, and so serious a rival did the game become that it was for a time suppressed and made a capital offense. That curious law never has been repealed and may still be found on the statute book. There seems to be no record, however, of the law ever having been enforced.

DR. ALEXANDER PASSES.

Prominent Veteran and Writer Dies at Charlotte.

Charlotte, N. C., June 26. — The death Saturday evening at 7:15 o'clock of Dr. John Brevard Alexander, a man of remarkable character and wide acquaintanceship, removed from the community one of its first citizens and from the county and State a citizen who was known throughout its breadth.

At his home on North Tryon street, Dr. Alexander had been kept in his room by frailty and illness since the middle of last Winter, although up to that time he was a familiar figure on the streets and every day when the weather permitted he spent some time out of doors, conversing with friends and always showing a lively interest in local and general affairs.

Although he had arrived at a mature age of 77 years and in spite of a serious stroke of paralysis suffered some 14 years ago, and with physical weakness attendant upon old age creeping upon him. Dr. Alexander never lost that geniality of disposition and interest in his fellowmen, and his friends often marveled at the vitality and courage displayed by the deceased up to the very time of his disappearance from among the haunts of men, and his confinement to his room.

STRIKE OF DOCK HANDS.

Union Workers of Liverpool—Cause of Trouble.

London, June 26.—Another shipping strike was launched today. The union workers on the docks at Liverpool generally obeyed the order to strike against the forty-six firms in the shipping federation.

The shipping interests at Hull, Goole, Grangemouth and Clyde found themselves in a similar plight, the union men refusing to handle goods from federation ships. Negotiations between employes and employers have ceased.

The trouble began at Liverpool, where the strike leaders, encouraged by the success of the seamen in obtaining concessions, issued a manifesto order ordering all the union workers employed by the shipping federation to stop work.

Amsterdam, Netherlands, June 26.—Two thousand dock hands, struck today in sympathy with the striking seamen. Work ceased at all of the ships of the eight largest firms.

KILLS MAN AND SELF.

Chased by Mob Richwood Citizen Commits Suicide.

Richwood, W. Va., June 26.—In an tempt to kill his son and daughter early today, Granville Johns, aged 50, shot and killed R. T. Ulet, aged 25, a boarder at his home, and then committed suicide when hard pressed by a mob.

Charles Johns, aged 20, and his sister Minnie, aged 19, yesterday visited Camden-On-Gauley, a resort in disobedience to their father's wishes. Unknown to his father, the young man and woman returned to their home about mid-night and slipped into the house. Early this morning, Johns visited his son's room with a shot gun. During the struggle the gun was discharged and Ulet, who occupied the room with Charles, received the load of buck shot in the abdomen.

His death was instantaneous. He fled but was cornered, however, upon the river bank about a mile from town and killed himself in view of hundreds of persons.

"BILLY" SUNDAY'S SUCCESS.

Former Baseballist's Pulpit Effotrs Are Bringing Results.

Erie, Pa., June 26.—As a result of a series of evangelistic meetings being conducted here by the Rev. "Billy" Sunday, the former baseball player, more than 1,000 persons have professed religion and 200 of the conversions occurred during a service which started on Saturday night and ended at 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

For three hours following the meeting over 300 men remained in the church praying for the success of the campaign against sin. Following the prayer service they marched into the tent, where they sang songs and hymns.

SITUATION IN MEXICO.

Still Being Crushedby Capitalistic Combination.

New York, June 26.—Complaint that the proletrait element of the Mexican revolution is still being crushed by a capitalistic combination of the Diaz and Madero factions is made in resolutions adopted at a mass meeting held at Cooper Union tonight under the auspices of the New York-Mexican Revolution Conference. There were addresses by Hebrew, Russian, Italian and English to a large audience in which socialist leaders were conspicuous.

The meeting pledged "moral and financial support to the down-trodden workers of Mexico."

SWEEPING TRAFFIC LAWS.

Will be Enforced in Richmond, Va.—The Regulations.

Richmond, Va., June 26.—Automobile owners, motorcyclists, bicyclists and rivers of vehicles of all descriptions, with the exception of street cars and baby carriages, will have to toe the mark in Richmond on and after July 1st, and move in the straight and narrow path. The new traffic ordinance becomes effective five days from today, and violations of any of its provisions, and there are nearly half a hundred, will lead, upon conviction, to a fine of from $2 to$100.

In important and busy thoroughfares the speed of vehicular traffic, under the new law, is regulated to the maximum of eight miles an hour. No person under sixteen years of age will be allowed to drive an automobile or motorcycle. Upon conviction, any intoxicated person who attempts to pilot a machine will be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100, with the added punishment of the revocation of his license.

The ordinance is modeled after that in vogue in most of the larger cities, and drawn with the idea of regulating traffic so that all street congestion may be relieved and the lives of pedestrians and others protected.

Brook Alderman, colored, was arrested at a late hour last night by Patrolman J. S. Lane, on a warrant charging him with housebreaking. It is alleged that Alderman forcibly entered the office of Thomas Smith, near the wharf, and stole a valuable watch. He will be tried before the recorder this morning.

NEWS EVENTS AT WHITEVILLE.

Agricultural Outlook Bright—Colored Woman Murdered at Boardman.

Whiteville, N. C., June 26.—We had good rains both Saturday and Sunday evenings, and crops are indeed flourishing. While nothing was suffering, early corn was just beginning to need rain when the showers came. This insures one of the best corn crops our county ever had, and everything else is doing as well as farmers could ask. The agricultural outlook is bright indeed.

There was another killing in our county on Thursday night; one negro woman at Boardman shooting another dead. The woman who did the shooting is now in jail, Cora Smith, a woman about 25 years of age, and wife of Thomas Smith, of Boardman, shot and killed Maggie Nichols. The Smith woman is half witted. It seems from the testimony that the Nichols woman had before tried to separate Cora from her husband, and there was bad blood between the two. On the night of the killing Maggie Nichols came to Cora Smith's house and proceeded to curse and abuse her, calling the woman every vile name. Cora asked Maggie to leave her house and stop her abuse, but she (Maggie) refused to so. Cora then procured a pistol and shot the Nichols woman three times. Cora says she shot only to frighten Maggie and not to kill her.

The jail is filled with prisoners again, mostly under misdemeanor charges. There is a good deal of litigation now in our county. Last Friday Magistrate Bruce Pierce tried 24 civil cases.

Miss Fay Memory, the brilliant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Memory, and who graduated this year at the Meredith College, has been tendered the position of teacher of English and history in one of the leading colleges of our State and will probably accept.

One evening last week a large bug entered into the ear of Mr. Gore, who lives near Vineland, and forced its way into his head. He suffered intense agony, and finally had to send for Dr. Crowell, who succeeded in killing the bug and removing it from Mr. Gore's ear.

Mr. Neal Bailey and Miss Clarel Porter were married at Cronly by Capt. A. T. Clark. Mr. Bailey holds a position with the Waccamaw Lumber Co., at Bolton, and Miss Porter is a popular young lady of Bladen county and the Cape Fear River section.

Mr. Wardin Hunter, of Bolton, and Miss Mary Westbrook, of Florence, S. C., were married here this week. They will make their home at Bolton.

Mrs. E. C. Clark, wife of the general manager of the Waccamaw Lumber Co., left last week to visit her old home at Detroit, Mich.

LUMBERTON NEWS NOTES.

Sweet Singer in Bad — Other Items of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., June 26.—The following item which appeared in yesterday's Charlotte Observer, will be read with interest by Lumberton people, who recently were charmed by this singer's melodious voice:

"It has been learned from recent visitors to Mooresville that Signor Antonio Corelli, who has taken unto himself the title of "the noted baritone," has strayed from the path of music, and has used his sweet voice in cajoling several of the citizens of Mocksville into cashing a number of worthless bits of paper, bearing his signature, and calling for various amounts. Corelli was arrested by the Mooresville officers, upon complaint from Mocksville. He was returned to the scene of his misdoings yesterday."

"Sig." recently spent several days in Lumberton and made such an impression on the minds of some of the young that he will linger in their memories for some time to come. While here he imparted to several people in a confidential way that he was the man who had walked from Philadelphia, Pa., to Jacksonville, Fla., and that he had the misfortune to kill a pig which he said had tried to bite him while passing through Brunswick county. For this he was lodged in jail. He was released on a $25 cash bond, but he did not return to stand trial. He gave his real name as Earl S. Transue, and his home as 206 North Center street, Bethlehem, Pa. "Sig." soon wore his welcome out here and went to Maxton, where it is said that he made a $40 impression upon the newspaper establishment there for job printing and other advertising.

Charles Love, a colored painter, probably 50 years of age, woke up this morning about 4 o'clock complaining of a terrible pain in his head. In ten minutes time, before anything could be done for him, he was dead. Love had spent his entire life here and had the respect of many of the best white people. It is said that he was drinking heavily Saturday night and again last night.

Yesterday afternoon just as a party of four gentlemen from Maxton, traveling in an automobile, reached the west end of the iron bridge across Lumber river, coming into town, it became necessary to stop and back a short distance to make room for a team, then on the bridge, to pass by. The driver lost control of the car and it went down the embankment, turning completely over. The car was badly damaged, but fortunately the occupants escaped without injury.

A colored prisoner by the name of McEachern, died in jail yesterday. McEachern was charged with wife murder and would have been tried for his life at the term of court which commences next Monday. The remains were carried to Maxton yesterday by his father.

A report reached town yesterday afternoon that there had been some sort of trouble on one of Mr. Geo. French's plantations about three miles from town, in which a boy used a knife on a man, cutting him severely. The names of the parties have not been learned by the correspondent, nor the cause of the trouble.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 26.—Small hats will be the rule in women's head gear for next winter, according to delegates attending the Millinery Traveling Men's National Association's convention, which opened here today. The salesmen, however, apparently do not expect that the small hats will remain in vogue forever, as they adopted resolutions protesting against the proposal of railway companies to limit the size of trunks to 45 inches in height.

SENTIMENT OF BRUNSWICK.

Dr. Moore Gives An Idea of What the New Railroad Means.

Splendid progress is being made in construction of the railroad which is to furnish the magnificent port of Southport with an outlet and the people of Brunswick county are enthusiastic over what is in store for that county when the outside world finds out the many advantages of that section. When the bonds were voted to aid in building the road there was some opposition but the following letter from Dr. T. V. Moore, of Cronly, shows how even those opposed to the bonds have changed, and also the way that the people of Brunswick feel about the new railroad:

"Cronly, N. C., June 14, 1911.

"Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, President, Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern Railroad, Wilmington, N. C.

"Dear Sir:—I have read and learned with the keenest satisfaction of the splendid progress you are making with your railroad to Southport and through Brunswick county. Indeed, it would seem that the dream and hope of ages is about to be realized as I understand that track laying is going forward at the rate of about half mile a day between Bolivia and Southport. As a native of Brunswick county and one who opposed the bond issue when the question was first presented to the people three or four years ago, I want to now say that I am convinced you meant good faith when I thought to the contrary. I am ready therefore, and gladly extend to you my heartiest and sincere congratulations upon your success in carrying out this most important project to the people of my native county.

"I am also glad the people voted the bonds and are getting the railroad in return therefor. I furthermofe want to urge every man in Brunswick county to uphold your hands and co-operate with you in your laudable enterprise. By such a policy they will profit quite as much as you and in addition the county will have and enjoy modern transportation facilities for the devolpment of her trucking, fruit, agricultural, horticultural, live stock, timber, naval stores and other resources, including an enlarged commerce and trade at home and abroad.

"I am especially gratified at the success with which you have met since this gigantic undertaking has been made by one of our home people and successfully carried out after numerous others from a distance had attempted the same thing and failed.

"In other words, I felt like I wanted to see every man in Brunswick county feel towards you and your associates as I feel and give you the glad hand of a hearty welcome for your splendid work. You have combatted obstacles to my own knowledge that must have looked mountain high at times, but you have "made good" and your reward should be full and complete. We are now all glad you came among us and want you to be and remain one of us.

"I am none the less proud of my native county and love her good people and rejoice with them in every good thing that comes their way. What they have long needed has been a railroad running through the county as your road passes. A lack of such transportation facilities has long closed the door of hope and opportunity to many of the county's young men and best citizens.

Even within the next five years I expect to witness some wonderful developments all over the county—developments that would have been impossible without a railroad. So I see a brighter day dawning for the whole county with her varied resources and possibilities, and here's to the success of the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southern Railroad, its President and other officers.

"Very truly, etc.,
"T. V. MOORE."

FUNERAL OF W. B. SMOOT.

Most Largely Attended Funeral Ever Held in Rowan County.

Salisbury, N. C., June 25.—Probably the most largely attended funeral ever ehld in Rowan county, outside of this city, was that of Mr. W. B. Smoot at South River Methodist church, near Woodleaf, at 11 o'clock this morning. The funeral party proper left the residence on South Church street at 6:30 o'clock, the route to the church covering 18 miles. It was the request of the deceased that his funeral be held from this, the old family church, and his remains were buried among the people where he spent his boyhood days, every one of whom were his friends. Four ministers conducted the services, Rev. Haywood Harper, a local minister, speaking reminiscently of his lifelong friend, Rev. Mr. Higgins, pastor of South River church, also took part, as did Rev. J. P. Rodgers of the Methodist children's home at Winston-Salem, and Rev. Dr. Parker Holmes, of the First Methodist church of this city, Mr. Smoot's pastor. The officials of the last-named church attended in a body, the deceased being a member of the board of steawards. The Sunday school class of young girls taught by Mr. Smoot, also attended in a body. The Salisbury Bar Association, of which the deceased was a member, was well represented, as was also the Masonic order, the latter holding its customary ceremony at the grave. A quartet composed of Prof. Nelson V. Taylor, John W. Webb, T. R. Garner and H. A. Ellis rendered several selections. The floral offerings were unusually numerous and beautiful. In addition to the many Salisbury friends who attended the funeral, the people of the whole section around South River church were there and many were unable to gain admission to the building. The casket was opened at the church and nearly the entire congregation viewed the remains, the first to be permitted to pass the casket being about twenty-five colored servants and friends of the Smoot family during the life on the farm of Mr. Smoot.

THE FIRST COTTON BLOOM.

Same Farmer Held Record in Edgecombe for Several Years.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 26.—Edgecombe county's first cotton bloom for these parts was shown on the streets on Saturday afternoon by Mr. J. P. Daughtry and was raised on his farm near this city. Mr. Daughtry for several years past has been the first to capture this honor, and this year he has only added another to his list of victories. Following closely upon the heels of Mr. Daughtry, was Mr. G. Badger Chapman who brought to the city yesterday the second cotton blossom. While Mr. Daughtry comes in for the honor it is well to note that Mr. Chapman, a farmer of only two seasons, runs him a close second.

So far as a yield is concerned, Mr. M. F. Parham, of Nash county, who lives within a short distance of the corporate limits of the city, Saturday disposed of a wagon load of watermelons and cantaloupes, everyone of them having been raised on his farm near the city. While there have been melons offered for sale on the local market for the past two weeks they were shipped here from points south.

ON PEACEFUL MISSION.

Haiti's President to Urge Insurgents to Lay Down Guns.

Port au Prince, Haiti, June 26.—President Simon has started out again at the head of his troops for the purpose of bringing about peace in the northern districts of Haiti. He left today with a large force aboard the cruiser Antoine Simon, his destination being Cape Haitien, but the cruiser will call at St. Marc and Port au Paix. Recent advices have indicated that the revolutionary movement is of considerable extent and much damage has been done. It is said that the President will make an endeavor to persuade the insurgents to lay down their arms, before employing force.

SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED

This Woman Had to Insist Strongly, but it Paid

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a female weakness and stomach trouble, and I went to the store to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but the clerk did not want to let me have it—he said it was no good and wanted me to try something else, but knowing all about it I insisted and finally got it, and I am so glad I did, for it has cured me.

"I know of so many cases where women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I can say to every suffering woman if that medicine does not help her, there is nothing that will."—Mrs. JANETZKI, 2963 Arch St., Chicago, Ill.

This is the age of substitution, and women who want a cure should insist upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound just as this woman did, and not accept something else on which the druggist can make a little more profit.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unexpected Guests

The farmer and his wife were about to sit down to a cold supper when they saw some old friends driving towards the house.

The good wife was equal to the occasion—thanks to her New Perfection Oil Cook-stove.

She had it lit in a moment, and her guests hardly were seated on the porch before a hearty hot meal was ready for the table—sausages and eggs and long rashers of streaky bacon, and rolls just crisped in the oven and fresh coffee—and the hostess herself as cool and neat as if she had not been near the kitchen.

She never could have managed it with an old-fashioned range. The New Perfection is the quickest, most convenient and best cooker on the market.

New Perfection Oil Cook-stove

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, turquoise blue enameled chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with drop shelves, towel racks, etc.

Ignorance makes a man butt into it, and a lack of wisdom makes a man put his foot in it.

The day of greater dessication and narrowing of the resources of irrigation is fast approaching.

The next thing to being a pessimist is for a married man to hate to lend a helping hand around the house.

Stay at home and grow up with the Nation's Garden Spot. Refuse to be lured by mere pictures of progress.

An "outbreak" is reported in Alaska but if the Guggenheims can't suppress it they will call on Uncle Sam to go over and make their subjects behave.

The Hon. John Hays Hammond put on a court costume and waded around at the coronation after the manner of Beau Brummel. He looked like he had on a Sunday baseball suit.

If coronations were in vogue in North Carolina there wouldn't be enough crowns in the world to crown all the girls that the men of North Carolina would nominate for queens.

When you can't think of anything else think of some new way of assassinating the typhoid fly and the malarial mosquito. The fly seems to flourish on being swatted—"on paper."

A Rhode Island judge has decided that a photographer can take "snap shots" on the streets. That is where the girls will bow to the inevitable and wear their prettiest hats when the photographer begins his street work in earnest.

A sketch of the Hon. Judson Harmon, of Ohio, states that he is a baseball fan of the kind that takes a card and marks up the game as it is being played. In view of that fact, Col. Bryan will observe that Harmon knows a foul tip when he sees it.

The captains of industry do not care to be classed as malefactors of great wealth, hence they want the government to look into their corporations so as to give them a certificate certifying that they are well within the "rule of reason."

Experts are now predicting that the world's supply of food will run short in 7,000 years. That is somewhat remote, but people may as well worry over that as to be going around distressed to death for fear the cat will sooner or later get away with the canary.

Reciprocity has so many different kinds of friends that its enemies feel pretty sure it will be laid out in the divided house of its friends. Some of them want reciprocity for some other things which were entirely overlooked by those who framed the only kind of reciprocity they wanted.

Some Democratic newspapers are making arguments against the direct election of Senators as the Senate has fixed it for us. A mere statement is necessary to make anybody repudiate. It looked good to Vice President James Schoolcraft Sherman, who broke the tie and passed it. That settled it.

Says the Chattanooga Times: "Atlanta claims to be a real city and yet a 'possum was caught in the Terminal station there. We commend Atlanta to those seeking bucolic pleasures." Of course, it is somewhat embarrassing for a 'possum to be lying around loose in a place which puts on metropolitan airs, but Atlanta can get out of it by claiming a reward for capturing and returning what evidently constituted a part of some menagerie which visited the city.

MAKE FRIENDS FOR YOUR TOWN.

Every man who wants to do something for the development of his town should make friends for his town. If he knows his town, and he should know it by all means, he can tell the other fellow and open his eyes about its progress, its strong points and its advantages.

When a man knows his town it is easier to make friends for it, since it often happens that he can easily disabuse a stranger's mind about his city. He can set his town right if he knows how to do it. If we can correctly post people about our town, we send away just that many more people who will say a good word for it.

Talk Wilmington? Talk Wilmington, nothing. We ought to be able to draw out a pretty folder, or at least a card, and let it speak for Wilmington. In the midst of all our boosting, we seem to ignore the value of printer's ink and if we were to talk a fellow to death, he would never remember where we began and where we left off.

It is passing strange about that printing, when we come to think of it! People don't want you to hold them up, and take up their time hearing your song and dance. They want the concrete facts, and the best shape in which they can be gotten up is a folder or card that will fit a vest pocket or an envelope. The best talker in town really can't begin to tell it all, and besides he might be mistaken for a hot-air artist. No Wilmington man could rattle off the achievements and advantages of Wilmington unless he could hire a band and rent a hall. However, that little folder could do the work in a comprehensive, convincing and intelligent way that would be effctive and lasting.

A man who travels out of Wilmington and doesn't know his town ought to come right in and get acquainted so he can astonish the natives wherever he goes. He ought to be able to hold his own when he meets up with a whole lot of people who are going through life in ignorance of Wilmington. No man should be allowed to escape when he tackles a Wilmington man, but not so very long ago a Jacksonville man put it all over a Wilmington man who was traveling without his credentials. Now Jacksonville is a mighty nice town and that city's booster put up a spiel that world discount a circus poster. The worst part of it was that he was sorry Wilmington was so far behind "Busy Jacksonville" and several other nice towns, none of which are at all in it with Wilmington when it comes to commerce.

The Jacksonville man made the Wilmington man believe Jacksonville's commerce was greater than Wilmington's. The Wilmington man didn't know his town, whereas he could have lit a ten-center, stuck his thumbs in his vest, cocked his heels upon the back of a car seat and told a wonder-stricken bunch that the exports of Wilmington for ten months ending April 30, were $6,916,110 greater than for the entire exports for the 12 months of last year. You see, for the ten months ending April 30, the exports of six South Atlantic cities were as follows: Wilmington, $27,838,508; Norfolk-Portsmouth, $8,012,667; Newport News, $4,819,561; Charleston, $8,892,159; Jacksonville, $2,061,466.

The exports of the five cities, exclusive of Wilmington, footed up $24,085,853, which deducted from Wilmington's $27,838,508, leaves Wilmington $3,752,655 ahead of all the bunch.

That would make a Wilmington man seem to be a prevaricator because it is so astonishing, but those are the figures given out by the Department of Commerce and Labor and they can be seen and verified on page 1679 of the "Monthly Summary of Commerce and Finance of the United States." We repeat this for the reason that on yesterday we struck a most entertaining visitor who was under the impression that Wilmington was "getting along only tolerably well." We didn't do a thing to him but show him the documents and he was so astonished that he jotted down the figures so he could astound some more people with the true statistical gospel.

We didn't have time to spin him over our fine roads, snow him around town, and load him up on bank statistics, manufacturing progress, trucking records, and the like, but what we ought to have had was just a little folder so he could have carried it along. However, he will be here several days and may fall into the hands of others.

We started off to tell how important it is to make friends for your town. Be clever to strangers, show them around, give them the glad hand and show them some attention. We know a town which within the past twelve months got a large manufacturing plant because the writer of this article knew its advantages and spoke a good word for the town.

THE SLIME OF IT.

It was a sorry day for South Carolina when she ventured into the socialistic experiment of going into the whiskey business. The "dispensary" made a sovereign State a barkeeper, a wholesale and retail rumseller, and brought reproach on the palmetto tree as the emblem of the "chemically pure," yet, in numerous instances, of delusion, snare and fraud. Debauchery, political and personal, was the harvest of folly, and it seems that the State will never get flushed of the slime.

New dispensary sensations and disclosures continually break out afresh, but the limit was reached when some weeks ago a Georgia lawyer by the name of Felder dragged the name of Governor Blease into the mire, by making charges of corruption on his part before his election to the governorship. The Governor has denounced him as a libeller, and proceeded as if to vindicate himself in the courts of South Carolina. However, it seems that Mr. Felder won't "come across" since the Georgian fights shy of the South Carolina jurisdiction. No requisition can bring him over, but as to that the Columbia State remarks:

"Now that Governor Brown has refused to grant the requisition for Felder, the Governor of South Carolina will doubtless "get after" him in the United States courts of Georgia and sue him for $200,000 for libel and defamation of character."

If the Governor can't get him in South Carolina he ought to try to get him in Georgia. Governor Blease owes it to himself and the State of South Carolina to face Lawyer Felder if he should even have to take him to court in California. Felder's charges were made so boldly that we are surprised that he would stand back upon the issuance of a requisition. If he can make good his charges against the governor of South Carolina we are not able to see why he should be afraid to try the issues and face the Governor on his own ground. Felder owes that much to himself.

The integrity of Governor Blease has been called in question and it affects his reputation outside as well as inside South Carolina. Obloquy has been cast upon the fair name of the State, and the matter is such a grave one that it should be settled in court in order to keep the record straight. The people of South Carolina ought to want to know whether Governor Blease is entitled to their confidence or whether a heretofore reputable Georgia lawyer is guilty of libel.

In the great cause of civic virtue and public morals, there should be no possible immunity for either Felder or Blease. Governor Blease ought to know whether to resign or to invade Georgia.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A merger may not be a trust but lots of people think that it is one of the symptoms.—Durham Herald.

About the only things left now that Col. Bryan can dictate to are that new son-in-law and a phonograph.—Washington Post.

If we Americans continue to invent pleasures, the Sabbath day will soon be a thing of the past, as far as sacredness is concerned.—Chester (Pa.) Republican.

Oh, well, whenever it gets to the point where the Hon. James Schoolcraft Sherman has to cast the deciding vote, any old incompetent guesser could guess what would happen.—Indianapolis News.

Both at home and abroad the United States is known as the most optimistic nation on the earth, and in light of recent disclosures it appears to have earned that distinction. For decades the people have been ruled, dominated and suppressed by trusts, mergers and combinations in restraint of trade designed for the enrichment of the few at the expense of the masses; yet, no revolution has occurred and no insurrection has developed. In a general way this domination and suppression have been recognized and in the same general way tolerated. Except for one or two periodicals, which have treated the subject seriously, the condition has been accepted by the press and the people with good-natured grumbling. — Norfolk Landmark.

We refrerred yesterday to the "Back Home Movemen." and the success of the effort now being made by Southern railroads to induce former residents of this section to return. In this connection the following letter recently written to those in charge of the movement by Mr. Ralph A. Parlier, formerly of Lenoir, N. C., but now in Everett, Wash., may not be without interest: "Taxes are extremely high here, and if I get in shape to buy a farm, it will be in the South. I think Mr. Bacon, of Seattle, is exactly right about people making a mistake coming here from the South. As he says, the 'land sharks' first sell you land at from $100 to $150 an acre, and then it costs from $150 to $300 an acre to put it in shape. This country is suited for raising only a few things, such as potatoes, turnips, berries and garden truck. Wheat raised here is not used for flour, but for stock feed. The potatoes we have here are not as good as those raised in the South. People who buy land should buy in in the South, where everything that grows can be raised."—Winston-Salem Sentinel.

Wilmington Star: A couple of months ago, some Oklahoma boosters meandered through eastern North Carolina painting glowing pictures of rich lands and farming in that country. When they found out that an eastern Carolina farmer could clear enough money in one season on one acre of land to buy an acre in Oklahoma, the strangers bought tickets straight through to West Virginia. Why should man imagine a vain thing and stroll unwittingly into the very midst of the Nation's Garden Spot!" The same pair came this way first, most agreeable gentlemen, capable of presenting their subject in most attractive manner. But when they ran up against a Petersburg man who had information on the subject of the comparative merits of Oklahoma and Southside Virginia as wheat producers they received a blow from which they could not rally. He quoted recent government figures showing that the yield of wheat per acre in Oklahoma was only a small fraction in excess of the yield in Virginia, and the Virginia wheat is hundreds of miles closer to the point of greatest consumption. The quotation of government figures, showing that the average condition of Oklahoma wheat the first of June was only 44 by reason of the drought as against over twice that average for Virginia, also had the effect of depressing the market for Oklahoma lands. Strange how men can see profitable investments a thousand miles away and overlook those under the front windows.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

TAX PAYER'S OPINION.

Favors Moving Intake of Waterworks to Castle Haynes.

I was very much surprised to read in Saturday morning's Star that our City Councilmen were seriously considering a proposition from Mr. J. N. Hazelhurst, a civil engineer, to superintend the putting in of a new sewerage plant, or buying and enlarging the present plant for 7 per cent. commission of our sewerage fund remaining, about $210,000, 7 per cent. of this amounting to $14,700, leaving a balance of only $196,300, either to buy and enlarge the present plant or install a new system out and out. Our City Councilmen have just gone to Atlanta to get Mr. F. F. Pillet, a civil engineer of high reputation at a salary of $2,500 a year, to give his entire time to our city work, streets, sewerage, etc., and now comes the startling information that they are about to employ another on a 7 per cent. basis on a $210,000 proposition. When this sewerage system is completed we must put in a sterilizing plant to purify the waste, at its mouth, at an additional expense of $10,000 or more, which will cost between $2,000 and $3,000 each year to maintain, without the additional expenses for repairs, etc. Our waterworks plant recently installed under Messrs. Hazelhurst & Anderson's supervision at a cost of approximately $400,000, is now condemned, that is, the water both by our city and State Boards of Health as impure and unfit for drinking or cooking, unless boiled 20 minutes. Our tax paying citizens have just paid $400,000 for this up to date and still have no water to drink or cook with unless boiled 20 minute. The expense of boiling water is considerable, even in Summer, with the present price of wood cut ready for the stove, worth $5 to $6 per cord. If they use gas or oil either, it is more. This would do if only for a few days, but we must keep it up indefinitely with no end in sight. Thousands of people in this city, both white and colored, are not financially able to buy fuel to boil all their water before using, which makes it a very serious matter and one worthy of our earnest consideration. When our waterworks plant was first built at Hilton there were very few people living east of Ninth street and no sewerage, now we have sewerage and several thousand people living east of Ninth street, including Carolina Heights and Carolina Place, and our city hospital. Again, there were no box factories, freight yards, warehouses draining in to Macumber's ditch or Smith's creek, or saw mills, fertilizer factories, or oil mills north of Hilton bridge. Now look at the number of factories in that immediate vicinity, all emptying their sewer waste in the river very near the water intake on both sides, up and down the river, which is continually passing the plant ebb tide, flood tide, always running up or down, one way or the other and right by the intake. Under the existing conditions would it not be well or advisable to have a called meeting of our leading business men and tax paying citizens to consult over the matter, and advise with our city Councilmen and Board of Health?

Our city Councilmen are spending the people's money, and her tax paying citizens should have something to say at this present time before our Councilmen vote 7 per cent. commissions of an already very small sum left for sewerage, to be paid in salary for an additional civil engineer. Do we not need pure drinking and cooking water which is the very life of man and beast, more than we do additional sewer under present conditions? Then why not come together and discuss matters and the feasibility of extending a main line water pipe with pumping station east of Castle Haynes and get pure water even if it does cost $350,000, and let the present sewerage plant do for the present, or until two years hence, when our Legislature meets and decides whether we shall buy the present plant or install a new one; in the mean time extend our water intake to Castle Haynes and do something with Macomber's ditch in order that the citizens of this city may have pure water and milk to drink.

These are suggestions from an interested citizen and city taxpayer, for the consideration of her citizens.

The FIRM THAT PAYS YOUR CAR FARE

TO FIGHT SOUTHERN EXPRESS.

Merchants Association of State Opposes the Recent Advances.

Asheville, N. C., June 26.—There promises to be a vigorous fight made by the North Carolina Retail Merchants' Association on the Southern Express Company because of recent advances made in the express rates to certain points in North Carolina. In fact, the fight has already started. At the recent convention of the Association, the matter was discussed and a resolution was passed authorizing the State officers to take the matter up with the Corporation Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Asheville association is actively interested in this fight because of the increase in rates affecting Asheville and it is likely that the members will also give their attention to other alleged abuses.

James E. Rector, the secretary and attorney for the local association, stated this morning that the rates had largely increased as affecting Asheville and he cited the following cases of increase, in the rate to Asheville per 100 pounds: Morristown, from 90 cents to $1.25; Knoxville, from $1 to $1.50; Johnson City, from $1.10 to $1.50; Newport, 75 cents to $1.25; Montgomery, Ala., from $2.50 to $4.00. Mr. Rector said:

"The local association will prepare a list of the increases of which the foregoing is only a part of the rates affecting Asheville and will co-operate with the State Association in a vigorous and determined effort for relief.

"We also find that it has been the habit of the company to overcharge, asking more than the public rate, in some instances and perhaps for more than 50 per cent. of the packages received by local merchants they are overcharged from 10 to 25 per cent. more than the package weighs."

Anderson, S. C., June 26.—Foster Harper was fatally wounded and William Ridgeway was shot three times in the leg when the two men engaged in a pistol duel here this afternoon. Fifteen shots were fired by each man. Both parties are members of prominent families.

MANY VISITED WRIGHTSVILLE

Attractive Concerts Rendered at Both Hotels and at Lumina—Crowds Also Enjoyed Surf Bathing.

Although the threatening appearance of the weather kept many from the beach who would otherwise have spent the day there, Sunday nevertheless saw many pleasure seekers at the ever-popular resort.

The low week-end rates over the different roads brought many excursionists from the nearby towns to enjoy the day, and at the hotels there were many from Atlanta who came in Friday, taking advantage of the week-end rate. Wilmingtonians also went out in goodly numbers and added to the crowd. While it was cloudy almost the entire day, the threatened rain failed to materialize and it was quite pleasant at the beach, the never-failing breeze being on its job as usual.

With this week the season will be on in earnest. Wednesday will see the first excursion from Atlanta, and the hotels are expecting all the guests from the Georgia metropolis that they can well care for. The excursion will be run in two sections, one of them a solid Pullman train, and the other a train of day coaches. Wrightsville Beach has always been most popular with the residents of Georgia's chief city, and it is expected that there will be an unusually large crowd on the excursion Wednesday. Then, too, there will be an excursion from Charlotte the next day and many inhabitants of the "Queen City" will avail themselves of the opportunity offered and add to the throng of visitors. The same day, Thursday, an excursion will be run from Warsaw, and this will bring many citizens of that section to the beach for one day. From now on excursions will arrive regularly from different sections of the State, as well as from other commonwealths, bringing hundreds to enjoy the various forms of amusement at gay Wrightsville Beach.

Sunday at the hotels the usual fine concerts were enjoyed by large audiences, composed of many residents of the beach as well as the numerous guests. Delightful programmes were rendered at both the Oceanic and the Seashore. The bathing, too, was fine and many went in from each hotel, as well as from many of the cottages along the beach.

At Lumina the usual Sunday concerts were given, one at 4 P. M., and the other at 8:30, much to the delight of two large audiences. Director John Kneisel had arranged two excellent programmes, in the opinion of many the best that have been rendered on any Sunday this season. Some of the numbers were encored repeatedly.

DEATH OF MR. BLACKMON.

Occurred at Late Residence Yesterday Morning — Funeral Today.

Mr. Malachi Blackmon, aged 69 years, died at his late residence, No. 509 South Second street, yesterday morning. Mr. Blackmon had been in rather poor health for some time and his death was not entirely unexpected. The deceased was a man of fine character and had lived in Wilmington the greater part of his life. His many friends will be grieved to learn of his death and will sympathize with his wife and two sons, Messrs. Lucian and A. T. Blackmon, of this city, who survive him.

The funeral will be held from the family residence this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Crowley will conduct the service.

Easy Way for Them to Get Strong and Fat.

To thin and weak J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. has a word to say. Let them use Samose, the wonderful flesh-forming food, that is now so popular, and they will soon be plump and rosy.

Samose is not an ordinary medicine; it is a flesh-forming food that is adapted to the most delicate. Its tonic effect gives strength and health so that after its use for a short time, all the flesh and fat producing elements in the food will be easily assimilated and retained in the body.

The large sale druggists J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., have had on Samose since they first introduced it in Wilmington and the wonderful results following its use have made them such enthusiastic believers in its great merits that they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose does not make thin people fat and restore strength and health.

When a gain in weight is noticed after Samose has been used for a week or ten days, and health has improved, and you notice yourself growing stronger, you certainly should feel more than satisfied with what you have received from the small cost of 50c.

NEW SCIENTIFIC OFFICES

Dr. C. W. Stiles Secretary Two Important Commissions—Offices, With Private Secretary for Each Moved Here.

The interesting fact has developed that the choice of the Marine Hospital at Wilmington as a special hospital for the study of parasitic diseases has resulted in making this city the home, for part of the year, of two other scientific activities.

It appears that in addition to his duties as professor of Zoology in the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, Dr. Stiles holds two other appointments, and his coming here necessitates his bringing with him the work connected with these two offices. One of the positions is as secretary to the International Commission on Zoological Nomenclature. The commission is composed of 15 scientific workers selected from the world at large to form a court of last appeal in connection with all questions concerned in the scientific names used in zoology. For this work as secretary of this commission, Dr. Stiles has a special private secretary. The office of the commission is in Washington, D. C., but will move to Wilmington for the months that Dr. Stiles is stationed here.

His other position is scientific secretary of the Rockefeller Sanitary Commission for the Eradication of Hookworm Disease, and for this work also he has a special private secretary. The administrative secretary of the commission is Dr. Rose. Both secretaries have their headquarters in Washington, D. C., but during the detail of Dr. Stiles to Wilmington, his part of the office will be transferred here.

MR. JOSEPH POTTER DEAD.

Follows Four Children to the Grave—Funeral Yesterday.

At his late home on Meares street, early Sunday morning, Mr. Joseph F. Potter, 37 years of age, died after an illness of typhoid fever. Mr. Potter's death is the fifth in his family in a comparatively short time, four children having preceded him to the grave. His wife and two children survive, and will have the sincere sympathy of their many friends in this latest bereavement.

The funeral was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, Rev. Mr. Hall conducting the service. Interment was made in Bellevue along side the graves of his children. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. C. H. Batson, O. M. Hill, Lafayette King and W. T. Bryant.

LAID TO REST IN OAKDALE.

The Funeral of Late Herbert Cornwall Held Sunday Afternoon.

The remains were laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery. Floral tributes were many and beautiful. Following acted as pall-bearers: Honorary, Messrs. C. R. Davis, Sr., George C. Jackson, J. S. Williams and W. H. Shafer; active, Messrs. W. C. Smith, T. K. Curtis, John J. Fowler, Jr., B. F. King, Jr., A. E. Palmgren and T. M. Pridgen.

Greeks Indulge in Fisticuffs.

Mitchell Monsouras, a Greek who runs the Crystal Palace Confectionery, was tried before Magistrate Bornemann yesterday on a charge of assault and battery upon the person of William Monsouras, who had been employed by him for some time, but whom he had discharged Saturday. Mitchell contended that William owed him $14, and that when he came in the store yesterday he asked him for the money. William refused, claiming that Mitchell was in debt to him to the amount of $12, whereupon Mitchell ordered the other out of the store. William refused to go and the proprietor of the establishment then tried to kick him out. They fought it ought on the sidewalk in front of the store, very little damage resulting to either. Justice Bornemann found Mitchell guilty, and suspended judgment upon payment of costs. He took an appeal to the Superior Court.

Sighted Wreckage at Sea.

Capt. Coulbourn, of the schooner Calhoun E. Ross, which arrived yesterday from Norfolk with cargo of coal for the Springer Coal Company, reported sighting a part of the deck of a vessel and a number of cross-ties last Wednesday morning, ten miles southwest by west of Diamond shoals lightship. It is presumed that the wreckage is from the schooner Martha E. Wallace, which stranded near Cape Hatteras during the Winter. The Wallace, when wrecked, was bound North with a cargo of cross-ties. The Ross was delayed in passage on account of continual headwinds.

Yoke Fellows' Meeting.

At the regular monthly business and prayer meeting of the Yoke Fellows last night very successful work was reported during the month. Plans for the extension of the work to all parts of the county which are not filled or covered by an organized church body, were discussed at some length. This body is doing excellent work and its success is a source of much gratification to the young men who compose it.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

Rev. E. C. Sell Discussed It in Sunday Night Sermon.

At Trinity Methodist Church Sunday night, in his sermon on "Sabbath Desecration," Rev. E. C. Sell, among other things, said: "The disregard for the holy Sabbath, manifested today, is alarming. Is it possible that we are losing respect for this sacred day? In the language of an able writer, we say: 'The Sabbath is indispensable to man, being promotive of his highest good, physically, intellectually, socially, spiritually, and eternally. Hence its observance is connected with the best of promises, and its violation with the severest penalties.' In the beginning, when the Sabbath was instituted, God blessed and sanctified it—separated it from common to religious uses. Mark this. Long years after, amid the awful scenes of Sinai, the Lord said: 'Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work. But the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord, thy God,' etc., declaring that neither man nor beast should work on this holy day.

"Nehemiah was a great and good man. When he saw that the people were disregarding the Sabbath, he lifted his voice in defense of this sacred institution, saying: 'What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the Sabbath day? Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? Yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the Sabbath.' He could not remain silent in the face of such flagrant desecrations.

"The Sabbath is just as sacred, just as holy, today as it was of old, as it was in the beginning. Let us bear this in mind. The question that now confront us is this—'Are we keeping it as God would have us keep it?' Look around and see. Running trains, operating street cars, and all other forms of unnecessary labor, on Sunday, not only deprive men of the privileges of the sanctuary, but force them to work. This is contrary to the laws of God. (Ex. 31:14). The responsibility is somewhere. We cannot violate the divine laws with impunity. Sunday excursions, offering cheap rates, hold out strong inducements to people to absent themselves from the house of God. Is this right? The good Book says: 'Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is.' (Heb. 10:25). Thomas was absent on one occasion, and missed seeing his Lord. We cannot afford to treat sacred things lightly.

"We wonder how many church members and Sunday School workers in Wilmington, on the sacred Sabbath during the Summer months turn deaf ears to the church bells that call to duty and service, and go off in search of pleasure? God knows. We should remember that duty always comes before pleasure. Can any excusee for such disregard of the Sabbath be framed that will satisfy the Lord in the day of final account? No. He says: 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.' May the Holy Spirit write this intelibly on every conscience. Let us arouse from our lethargy. Who will say: 'Henceforth, by God's help, I'll be a strict Sabbath observer?' Who will join a crusade against Sabbath desecration?. The sanctity of this day must be preserved. God help us."

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

One Case of Highway Robbery—Several Minor Cases.

A case involving a charge of highway robbery was the feature of yesterday's session of the recorder's court. Henry Block, one bold black man, faced this charge, and also one of assault with deadly weapon upon Sam Dixon, another negro. J. C. Newkirk, colored, deposed that he was in a hack near the corner of Chesnut and 11th streets when Block approached him with a large knife and commanded him to stand and deliver. He turned over to the disciple of Jesse James $2.75, all the cash upon his person. A little later, according to Sam Dixon, Block accosted him with the knife still prominently displayed. Dixon called lustily for succor, and then did a Marathon. About this time Block fell into the hands of the officers. In the court the case was continued until today.

William Wright, colored, was tried on a charge of abandonment. He was found guilty and the case was left open until today for judgment.

D. K. Hegler was found guilty of running a meat market without license and this case was also left open for judgment.

George Nixon, who was found guilty of non-support last week, and sentenced to 12 months on the county roads, was allowed to pay the costs and give bond to appear before the court every Monday morning and show that he was supporting his family. In case he fails to do this he will be arrested and judgment will be prayed. One drunk was allowed to pay the costs.

The case against Thomas Mask Jones, colored, charged with retailing, will be tried before a jury today. The jury was drawn yesterday. This case has already been tried several times, a mistrial resulting in each instance.

Miss May Lord Got the Watch.

Miss May Lord was the fortunate young lady who received the handsome gold watch given as a souvenir at the dance at Lumina last night. This was one of the most novel of any ever given at Lumina, where novel dances are the order, and, of course, it was thoroughly enjoyed by the dancers. Aside from the watch, the other souvenirs given last night were said to be among the prettiest ever given away at Lumina. The attendance was unusually good.

REITERATES HIS WARNING

Dr. Nesbitt Again Urges Upon Public the Necessity of Using Precautions and Promply Reporting Disease.

Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, expects to have a complete report of the number of persons in the city who are ill from preventable diseases, within the next two days. He wishes to lay particular stress upon the prompt reporting of all new cases of illness whatsoever to the Health Department. This is considered by the officials as one of the most important features of the campaign to make the city more healthful.

Most of the diseases prevalent in Wilmington at the present time are of the class known as preventable diseases and the Health Department, if notified promptly when a new case is discovered, will have an excellent chance of tracing the disease to its origin and removing the cause. It is only by the co-operation of the people that the best work along this line can be done, and Dr. Nesbitt wishes to urge upon every one, the people generally as well as the doctors, the necessity of immediately reporting all new cases of disease to the Health Department. The Health Department feels that too much cannot be said along this line, and the officials are sure that when this state of affairs comes to pass half the fight for a healthier city will have been won. The department cannot hope to locate and destroy the cause of the disease unless they are notified promptly when it makes its appearance.

Dr. Nesbitt also wishes to reiterate his warning as to milk and the water used at soda fountains. All milk used should be boiled first, or pasteurized, if possible.

He urges the public to patronize no soda fountain that does not use water from deep wells or water that has been boiled, and also no drug store or soda fountain that does not wash its glasses in running water, and flush out their coils or pipes with a bleaching powder. To drink out of a glass washed in a tub or cistern of still water is fully as dangerous as drinking the water itself. No ice cream should be eaten that has been made in questionable places or under questionable circumstances. Extreme care should be used in matters of this kind if one wishes to avoid all danger.

All water used for domestic purposes should be boiled, and care should be used in disposing of slops, etc.

Last night at the home of John Whiteman, a well known colored citizen, at No. 404 North Seventh street, the colored people who have formed a health association, met to organize and form their plans. The colored people of the city have shown a most commendable spirit in forming this association, and the health department wishes to give them every aid possible. Dr. Nesbitt attended the meeting last night and assisted in forming the plans for the organization.

The health department only asks an opportunity, and with the co-operation of the citizens feels that it can successfully cope with the situation. If the public will use the proper precautions in its use of water and milk, and report promptly all new cases of sickness, it feels that it will only be a short time until Wilmington is the healthiest city in the State.

WILL MAKE TEST CASE.

Judgment Given in Case Growing Out of Sixth Street Bridge Trouble.

Yesterday before Justice of the Peace G. W. Bornemann a case entitled J. F. Keetor against the City of Wilmington, Southern Construction Company and R. W. Curtis, was tried and judgment rendered for $58.45, the amount asked. An appeal was taken to the Superior Court and on the result of this case will depend 14 other cases of a similar nature.

This case grew out of the Sixth street bridge tangle and the amount asked is for labor performed. It seems that when Mr. Curtis, of the Southern Construction Company, left Wilmington, the workmen had not been paid up in full and, furthermore, they were allowed to remain on duty for a week or ten days after he had left Wilmington and during the greater part of this time they had nothing to do. A number of laborers' liens were filed just before the bridge was attached under a judgment secured at Burlington and the present suit was brought to enforce the lien in one of the cases, there being some doubt about the ability of the laborers to enforce liens against the city and the question will be determined by the Superior Court.

In addition to the laborers' liens, there are other claims against the city and Construction Company in connection with the Sixth street bridge amounting to some seven or eight hundred dollars, this not including what it will cost to get the bridge completed.

WOULD-BE BURGLAR.

Endeavored to Get in Residence When Frightened by Dog.

A faithful dog probably kept the residence of Captain W. P. Oldham from being burglarized Sunday night. An effort was made by some one to gain admission to the house by a back door but Captain Oldham was awakened by the barking of his dog and when he rushed to a window the man made his escape. It is supposed that the man is the same who has been committing the many robberies throughout the city during the past few weeks. But very little information is given out by the police department relative to any of the robberies and it is not known just how many robberies have been committed recently.

FELL WHILE FIXING LIGHT.

Mr. James Sutton Injured by Pole Breaking With Him.

Mr. James Sutton, an employe of the Tidewater Power Company, was painfully but not seriously injured yesterday morning by the breaking of a telephone light pole on the yards of the Atlantic Coast Line. The lights on the railroad yards are placed at the top of a pole and it is necessary to climb the pole in order to make the necessary repairs. Yesterday Mr. Sutton had reached the top of a pole forty feet or more high when the guy rope suddenly gave way and the pole broke near the ground and fell with Mr. Sutton clinging to it. Mr. Sutton fell across a railroad track and his right leg was painfully cut and bruised just below the knee and he also received minor bruises on his left leg. He was carried to his home in the southern part of the city and his injuries looked after by a physician.

Those who viewed the accident said it was difficult to see how Mr. Sutton escaped with so few injuries.

UNCLE SAM HALTS REBELS.

Filibustering Days Over in South America.

New Orleans, June 26.—That the festive filibustering days are over for the time being, anyway, is the forced conclusion of certain Central Americans in this city, following the visit to New Orleans, Gulfport, Mobile, Pensacola and Tampa of lynx-eyed secret service agents of the United States government.

It seems that the word was passed along that Uncle Sam would deal severely with the next bunch of revolutionists operating out of gulf ports, and that special care would be taken to balk any filibustering expedition.

A hundred or more cases of arms were held up at this port last Saturday by the consul of Nicaragua. The arms were consigned, presumably, to the government. It is now said that arrangements had been made to have them fall into the hands of parties hostile to the Nicaraguan administration. An investigation is being made, and it is possible that the entire consignment may be seized.

FIVE-CAR ELECTRIC TRAINS.

Tidewater Power Company Will Inaugurate New Service Sunday.

Beginning next Sunday the Tidewater Power Company will inaugurate five-car electric trains to Wrightsville Beach and back. The three and four-car trains that have ben in operation have proven inadequate to handle the heavy Sunday traffic and the company has decided to put on the larger trains. Heretofore this was impossible on account of the shortage of cars, but the company will have three new cars in operation next Sunday. These cars have been in the course of construction for some time and now they are almost ready for service. The motors have already been installed and all that is lacking is the trucks. These have been shipped from Newcastle,P a., and are expected to reach the city Thursday, and they will be placed under the new cars at once.

The new cars are Wilmington products, having been constructed at the local shops of the company. They are of the regulation size and will be fully as comfortable as any car on the local lines.

The five-car trains will enable the company to handle the heavy Sunday traffic much more expediently than the limited facilities have heretofore.

CUTTING AFFRAY AT BEACH.

Two Arrests Made on Negro Excursion to Carolina Beach.

Two arrests were made by Constable W. B. Savage among the negroes attending the colored excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday. Julius Wilson was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon upon Charley Spicer. Wilson slashed Spicer's throat with a pocket knife, inflicting an ugly gash. Fortunately there were two colored doctors in the excursion party and they managed to staunch the flow of blood, otherwise the negro would have bled to death. He was placed in a private conveyance and brought to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, where his wound was treated. It was stated at the hospital last night that his injury was not serious.

Dolph Davis was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon upon another negro. He threatened the man with a pistol.

Both cases were tried before Justice Harriss yesterday evening. Wilson was placed in jail without bond, and Davis was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon and also carrying a concealed weapon, and was placed in jail under heavy bond.

BLEASE REMOVES DOZEN.

Heads of Dozen Whiskey Constables Are Chopped Off.

Columbia, S. C., June 26.—Governor Blease Monday, in accordance with letters received from sheriffs and supervisors, removed 12 dispensary constables in 11 dry counties.

The following are the counties in which the constabularly have been dismissed by the governor's letters mailed out Monday afternoon:

Dorchester, Lee, Sumter, Orangeburg, Fairfield, Darlington, Abbeville, Berkeley, Saluda, (two constables), Barnwell and Calhoun.

In each county, save Saluda, there was one dispensary constable.

In addition to the removal of the constables in the counties named above, Governor Blease indicated that he would retain constables, in accordance with supervisors' and sheriffs' reports in several dry counties.

Governor Blease wrote a letter to the dry counties where the constables had been appointed, asking the supervisors and sheriffs if the constables were desired to be retained. It was in accordance with the letters received that Governor Blease acted Monday.

The six wet counties are not affected. Charleston, Richland, Beaufort, Florence and Georgetown retain all their constables. Aiken does not have whiskey constables because of the rural policemen that are employed in that county.

THE MILLIONTH PATENT.

President Taft Designates Inventor Who Will be Given Honor.

Washington, June 26.—The United States government will issue its one millionth patent for an invention on August 1 next and the honor will go to an inventor who has been designated by President Taft.

Commissioner of Patents Edward Bruce Moore has been looking forward for some time for a celebration of the issuance of the patent No. 1,000,000. It was hoped that this distinction should go to epoch making invention.

Several weeks ago President Taft received a letter from an American inventor saying that he had perfected a device which he would like to have the honor of receiving No. 1,000,000. The President asked the commissioner to comply with the request if it was not incompatible with the regulations of the office.

The commissioner reported to the President that the device was good and would constitute a valuable invention to the number of American patents that patent No. 1,000,000 would be granted the inventor. The number was placed in reserve and will be officially recorded in the first issue on August 1st.

THREE EDITORS UNDER ARREST.

These editors several days ago printed an alleged affidavit that in 1880 the Tupelo statesman and humorist broke into a mill and stole a gallon jug of whiskey. Mr. Allen denounces the story as untrue. He immediately had complaints sworn out against the editors who published the item.

At the Bijou.

Besides the finest of shows, a most delightful theatre in the way of solid comfort during the hottest of weather and always the merriest and most tuneful of music, the popular Bijou is noted for the great variety of its bills. Not only is the programme new each day, but the type of pictures is entirely new. This necessarily adds charm for the onlookers and it attests as to the alertness and carefulness with which the Bijou management "keeps at it" in behalf of its patrons. For instance, one feature of today's bill will take the beholders back to the old stage coach days. Films of Western type have been plentiful and of wide latitude, but never before has a picture shown anything like what will be vividly and realistically shown in today's great and expensive film, "Told in the Sierras." It is a story of the early days of California and introduces the daring hold-ups of stage coaches, which have long since given way to the modern advancement of the railroad. While the setting of the story is exciting, yet the plot is one of love and devotion, as one of the principal characters is the motion picture drama is the wife of the road agent. The fight between the highwayman and a sheriff's posse and the escape of the former is the most thrilling piece of motion picture work in years. Another great film that savors of the West is on today's bill, though it is different from the other one. In fact, it is different from any ever seen in Wilmington. In this picture:: Lean Wolf's End," an army parson and a bold Indian warrior are the leading characters. The act has an admirable foil to these intensely dramatic pictures the Bijou has some of the brightest and biggest of fun pictures also on today's programme.

JACKSONVILLE TEAM HELD.

Sunday Game Cause of Arrests—Placed Under Bond.

Jacksonville, Fla., June 26.—Nine members of the Jacksonville Baseball Club, who participated in Sunday's game, were arrested here today. It is said the arrests were caused by the club owners themselves, who wish to have the Sunday baseball law put to a test. The entire club was released on a signed bond amounting to $100. The arrests are not regarded seriously and it is not believed that a jury can be found that will convict the players.

WOMAN'S TRUCK FARM.

In Heart of New Orleans—Earns Her Living.

New Orleans, June 26.—Undaunted by having her husband fall ill and the source of income suddenly cut off, Mrs. H. A. Brothers, of this city, transformed her back yard into a miniature truck farm several months ago and has since made enough in growing vegetables to support the family. Her lot is 45x159 feet, part of which is taken up by the residence.

One day last week truck worth $1.05 was sold from one patch 15 feet square and 85 cents earned from another little patch. She cultivates celery, snap beans, lettuce, onions, carrots, corn, lima beans, squash, cucumbers, spinach, green peas, peppers, radishes and pumpkins, and wherever there is an inch of room not occupied by some vegetable, Mrs. Brothers has chrysanthemums which will bloom and find a market next November. She pays a street sweeper 25 cents per load for "sweepings," which she uses as fertilizer.

The husband can now do light work, and as Mrs. Brothers has made such a success from her farm, both are centering all efforts toward getting enough money ahead to buy a larger place.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER, POISON OAK, ETC.

Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Poison Oak, Pimples, etc., show that some unhealthy humor or acid impurity is diseasing the circulation, and that a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid is necessary in order to correct the trouble. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may relieve some of the itching and other discomforts caused by skin diseases, but such treatment has no effect on the blood and therefore cannot do any permanent good. Until the humor is removed from the circulation the cuticle will suffer the effects of an acrid irritation. S.S.S. is the best and quickest remedy because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the circulation, and removes every particle of the humor, whether it be an infection of poisonous plants or from other causes, and makes the blood pure, rich and healthy, allowing it to soothe and nourish the skin instead of irritating and inflaming it with acrid humors. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired sent free. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores.

TEXACO ROOFING

is made of solid, extra heavy, first quality, wool felt, thoroughly saturated with Texaco Bitumen, over 99 per cent pure, and afterward finished with an extra heavy coating of the same material.

TEXACO BITUMEN—over 99 per cent pure — possesses great fire-resisting properties, is not oxidized by the action of the elements, is impervious to the action of acids, fumes and gases, is not injured by the extremes of heat and cold, and remains adhesive and pliable.

The weakest point of ready roofing is at the lap, due to the disintegration and hardening of the cement used, but Texaco Roofing Cement, made of bitumen over 99 per cent pure, insures a permanent waterproof lap.

The principal merits of TEXACO ROOFING are:
ECONOMY of first cost and application.
SIMPLICITY and ease of application.
PERFECTION of weather and water-resisting qualities.
MAXIMUM of strength and durability.
FIRE-RESISTING.
PLIABILITY and immunity from injury by extremes of temperature; and, last but not least,

A PERMANENT LAP, by use of Texaco Roofing Cement, which gives security, strength and waterproofing at the weakest point of a roof.

COTTON IS GOING DOWNWARD

Market Was Nervous and Unsettled With Old Crop Positions Weak —Absence of Bull Support —Cables Indifferent.

New York, June 26.—The cotton market was nervous and unsettled with old crop positions weak under liquidation in the absence of bull support, while new crop deliveries were steadied by trade buying and with the market closing steady, at a net decline of 17@28 on near months, but only 2 to 4 points net lower on new crop positions.

The opening was steady, at a decline of 6 points to an advance of 4 points, and right after the call new crop positions generally sold 3 to 5 points net higher on covering of shorts and reports of dry, hot weather in the Western belt over Sunday. The old crop, however, showed no disposition to improve, cables were indifferent and immediately following the Western belt forecast which suggested unsettled weather with showers in Oklahoma and Arkansas, new crop positions also turned easier. Around 13.03 for October the new crop months were steadied by trade buying, and while the demand from spinners did not follow the market up, the talk of large orders around the ring just above 13 cents level promoted covering enough to impart a generally steady tone to the Fall and Winter months, during the later trading. Private wires from New Orleans reported that one of the prominent Southern bulls had taken up cotton on July contracts there, but there was continued liquidation of July and August here, presumably in anticipation of the first of July notice day next Friday, and during the afternoon July broke to 14.38, or into new ground for the movement, about 27 points under the closing figures of Saturday, with the trade rather more disposed to credit the rumors that had been circulating on Saturday of a private settlement between leading interests in the near months. Private crop advices from the eastern belt were generally very favorable, but reports from the Western belt continued more or less conflicting.

Receipts today, 1,898, against 895 last week and 2,703 last year. For the week, 8,000 bales, against 7,006 last week. To-day's receipts at New Orleans, 675, against 389 last year, and at Houston, 56 bales, against 1,392 last year.

Spot closed quiet, 25 points lower; middling uplands, 14.75; do., gulf, 15.00; no sales.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, June 26.—Largely on the strength of a big, broad market in oats today, every staple on 'change today closed at a net advance; wheat ½@⅝c. to ¾c.; corn, 1¼@1¼c. to 1¾c., and provisions, 2½@5c. to 25c. Compared with 48 hours previous latest figures showed that oats had risen 1¾ to 2⅝@2¼ a bushel. A Charming Woman is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But its hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c. at R. R. STOCK MARKET MORE ACTIVE

Union and Pacific Leaders of Day—Developed a Reactionary Tone —Trading Well Underway— Features.

Neaw York, June 26.—Under circumstances which apparently were favorable to security values, the stock market today developed a reactionary tone. Crop news, which had been awaited with a degree of interest amounting almost to anxiety, was distinctly favorable. The decision in the Harriman merger case was regarded as highly encouraging and reports of improvement in business were received from several quarters.

The market was stimulated by a large volume of buying orders, which had accumulated over the week-end, and trading was more active than for some time. An appearance of strength was imparted at the opening by rises of 1% in both Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, and a point or less elsewhere through the list. Before trading was well under way, however, prices fell off quickly, cancelling many gains. During the remainder of the day the market was erratic and irregular. The speculative leaders, showing the effects of heavy pressure, ruled below Saturday's close during the afternoon and ended the day with substantial losses.

The heaviness of the market was attributed chiefly to realizing sales. Holders of large lines of stock, some of it acquired last Saturday on the rise, had the opportunity of closing out today at profits which were unusually active in comparison with the few openings afforded during the recent week of narrow movements.

Norfolk and Western and Southern Pacific were strong, consistently and were unaffected by the weakness which overtook almost all of the other standard stocks at the close. The electric, fertilizer and copper rates were especially weak. United States Steel was under steady pressure and the heaviness in this issue seemed to have a depressing effect upon the market.

The April statistics reported that operation revenues of all the roads of the country last April decreased virtually 5 per cent, and operating expenses by the same per cent. The heaviest loss in revenue was among the western roads.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,320,000. United States were unchanged.

Total sales of stocks for the day, 621,800 shares.

FESTIVITIES IN LONDON.

Magnificent Spectacle at Covenant Garden Last Night.

London, June 26.—One of the most magnificent spectacles in connection with the Coronation was the command performance tonight in Covenant Garden, the interior of which transformed into a veritable floral palace wreathed about England's fairest flower. Those privileged to be within the great auditorium will long remember the gorgeous scintillating picture, the fragrance of 100,000 perfect rose blooms, the noble company of men and women representing the royalty of the world, and all the most distinguished in British official and social life, who filled every box and stall.

The King and Queen drove from Buckingham Palace in a state coach escorted by life guards. On their arrival their majesties were received by the chief State officers and escorted to the royal box, the whole audience rising.

In point of picturesque attire the Indian princes glittering with jewels were easily first, eclipsing the royalties in their most splendid uniforms. Special American Ambassador Hammond sat in the second row of the royal box between the Duke of Connaught and the Grand Duchess of Hesse, his plain evening dress rendering conspicuous by contrast. Mrs. Hammond sat in the diplomatic box to the right.

She wore a costume of gold cloth, yellow and white diamente trimming with gold lace on the bodice. Her jewels were emeralds and diamonds.

The King was in an admiral's uniform and wore the Order of the Garter. The Queen's gown was delicate pink over which the blue riband of the garter shone in marked relief. On her bosom were the twin stars of Africa, on her hand a diamond fleur de lys, and a maltese cross. The Queen was escorted to the royal box by Crown Prince Frederick William, of Germany, and the German Crown Princess entered on the arm of his majesty.

Although rain again fell, dense crowds gathered outside Covenant Garden to witness the arrival and departure of their majesties and the royal visitors. After the performance, the royal guests, special envoys and members of the diplomatic corps attended a ball given by the Duke and Duchess of Westminster at Grosvenor House.

Renowned artists took part in the gala performance. The programme opened with a scene from the second act of Verdi's "Aida." This was followed by the second act of Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet". Then came Act III of Rossini's "The Barber of Seville," and tableau II of the Russian ballet "LaPavillon D'Armide."

Among the artists were Mmes. Melba, Destinn, Tetrazzini, Berat and Kirkby Lunn and John McCormack, Sammarco, Franz, Bassi and Malatesta.

MORGAN MADE A MEMBER.

Of Imperial Yacht Club — Emperor William's Toast.

Kiel, Germany, June 26.—Emperor William, who has been giving much attention to the officers of the second division of the United States Atlantic fleet and the visiting yachtsmen during the past few days, made a speech at the state dinner of the Imperial Yacht Club tonight. After a graceful reference to the American naval visitors and yachtsmen, he gave a toast "To all true sailors."

The guests at the dinner included Prince Adalbert, the Imperial chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollag, Baron von Kiderlen Waechter, secretary for foreign affairs; American Ambassador Hill, Rear Admiral Badger, J. Pierpont Morgan, who was elected a member of the Imperial Yacht Club, at a special meeting today, and a large contingent of American officers and yachtsmen.

Before the banquet the Emperor personally presented his prizes to the American winners of the sailing and rowing races in which the warship boats participated on Thursday and Saturday.

In the athletic games today the American sailors and the Germans were well matched, each winning four events.

FALLS OVER TALL CLIFF.

Greenville, S. C., Lad Victim of Unusual Accident.

Greenville, S. C., June 25.—News reached here today from the Isle of Pines, West Indies, of the tragic death of Joseph, the oldest son of Mr. H. J. Felton, who removed to the Isle of Pines some four years ago, after a residence of 37 years in Greenville.

Young Felton was out hunting with a friend, when he fell over a tall cliff and was dashed to death. The comrade went six miles for help and on the return was unable to locate the cliff, delaying the finding of the body until next day.

Mr. H. J. Felton originally came from New Hampshire. He settled in Greenville when the city was a village and opened up the first book store, which he continued to run for 37 years. Young Felton was about 18 years of age.

Boutell Struck Young Woman Because She Refused to Marry Him.

Pensacola, Fla., June 25.—Leonard J. Boutell, reported to be from New York, who created a scene at the residence of Archdeacon Allen yesterday, when he struck a young woman named Ella Woodward several times when she declined to marry him, was today transferred from the city to the county jail and it is expected that a lunacy commission will tomorrow examine into his sanity. The young woman said that she left New Orleans about three months ago to get away from him and that she did not know that he was in the city until he called at the residence of the clergyman.

TELL OF SHORT WEIGHTS.

Experts Say Dealers at Columbia Beat Consumers.

Columbia, June 26.—Because conditions here are probably typical of those prevailing all over the State a startling report made, by experts from the Federal Bureau of Standards, following a secret investigation here in April, has Statewide interest as showing how general weights and measures in use are short and how effectually, if innocently, consumers are defrauded.

One butter print out of forty-one tested was found within 3 per cent. of being wull weight. Conditions generally are condemned as "very bad." Only half the forty scales tested were correct within 3 per cent. Ten per cent. of all the scales tested were short-weighting consumers by more than 12 per cent. Spring dial scales were especially off. Scale weights ran 87 per cent. correct within 3 per cent.

Beans, peas and such commodities were generally sold by liquid measure, the consumer thus being imposed upon at the start to the extent of 14 per cent. Butter prints averaged about one ounce in the pound short. Out of twenty-nine packages of rice and sugar 69 per cent. were short-weight.

City Council will take steps to remedy the matters at once, probably by adopting strict ordinances and employing a capable inspector.

Recently government experts of weights and measures were in Charleston for the purpose of checking up retailers, but no report has been received here thus far. It is known that the inspectors carefully tested scales and measures and also re-weighed packages of sugar, rice, grits and other commodities, besides experimenting with butter prints that are supposed to weigh a full pound. Several of the retailers have expressed endorsement of the experts' work, hoping for uniform enforcement of the laws in the interests of all elements concerned.

COLLOQUY IN THE HOUSE.

Opposed to Word "Applause" in Fowler's Advance Speech.

Washington, June 26.—The expression "applause" after the words "Jesus was born in a manger, John the Baptist fed on locusts and wild honey" in the printed speech of Representative Fowler, of Illinois, a newly elected Democrat, precipitated a perennial colloquy in the House today, Representative Mann, of Illinois, the Republican leader of the House, accused Mr. Fowler of having inserted "all the applauses" in the advance copy of the Fowler speech. Mr. Mann said he would not have noticed this but for the fact that the word "applause" was inserted after the quotation cited. Representative Stone, also an Illinoisan, declared he heard the speech delivered and that there was applause at all the points indicated.

The passage of an urgent deficiency appropriation bill for $31,000-odd, including the payment of expenses of the special investigations now being conducted by several committees was practically the only business transacted by the House. Except for the work of committees nothing will be done by the House until after July 4, adjournment being taken today for three days with the understanding no business would be transacted on Thursday nor on next Monday.

ALLEGED TRUST INDICTED.

Criminal Prosecution of the 'Eastern Boxboard Club."

New York, June 26.—An indictment formulated under the criminal provision of the Sherman law was returned today by the Federal grand jury against "The Eastern Boxboard Club," alleged to be the successor of the dissolved Fibre and Manila Association.

The indictment, the first of a new series of governmental trust prosecutions—the presidents, officers and agents of paper board manufacturing corporations and co-partnerships, included in the memberships of the Eastern Boxboard Club are charged with maintaining a combination in restraint of trade limiting the output arbitrarily and fixing prices.

Many of the individuals named were connected with the corporations composing the Fiber and Manila Association, it is said, which, for operations under the Park pooling plan, was in February, 1910, declared to be unlawful combination and ordered dissolved by Judge Hough in the United States Circuit Court.

TWO LIVES WERE LOST.

Result of Explosion on Oil Barge in Port Arthur Harbor.

Port Arthur, Texas, June 26.—Two lives were lost, half a dozen men injured, some seriously, three oil barges and one tug were burned to the water's edge and about 10,000 barrels of oil, two large warehouses and over 500 feet of wharves were destroyed as the result of an explosion which was followed by a fire in the Port Arthur harbor and water front today. The loss is about $300,000.

Capt. Frank Weber, of the barge Humble, and Samuel Sicero, Italian laborer, lost their lives in an explosion aboard the Humble where the fire started.

The flames swept rapidly over several small vessels belonging to the Texas company and spread to two large warehouses of that concern. These, together with the wharves, were soon a mass of ruins. Other buildings were slightly damaged.

KINSTON WAS THE WINNER.

Gets State School for Feeble-Minded —Lillington Opponent.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 26.—Tonight the trustees of the State School for the Feeble-Minded and the Council of State, in joint session, selected the Fields place, Kinston, as the location for the institution, the work on the $65,000 buildings the State is to provide to begin within ninety days. The Fields place has 972 acres of land. The Norfolk & Southern is to provide a side track to the place and Kinston is to supply water and lights for five years.

Lillington was second choice, offering 990 acres of land with a Raleigh & Southport siding and other considerations.

ITEMS FROM RALEIGH.

Senatorial Contest Decidedly Quiet. Motor Company for Lumberton.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 26.—Grand Master R. N. Hackett, of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons, says the work cannot possibly begin on the Masonic Home for Aged and Infirm Masons at Greensboro before the Fall, although the contract has already been let for the main building. The contract is awarded, the Grand Master says, with the stipulation that the work is not to begin until certain matters have been adjusted that will take 30 days or longer. He and the committee had hoped to have the main building ready to turn over to the Grand Lodge completed at the annual convocation here in January, but the best they can hope for now is to have the walls up and the roof on by that time. They are proceeding in the surest possible way rather than the fastest and are determined to steer clear of any financial complications.

A charter was issued today for the Lumberton Motor Car Co., of Lumberton, Robeson county, capital $25,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed by A. H. McLeod, H. M. McAllister and others for general motor car agency business.

The State text book commission and sub-commission entered today on the third and last week of the hearings they are giving the book men on the merits of the books they are offering for adoption for use in the public schools of the State for the next five years. It is expected that the hearings will be completed by Thursday. Governor Kitchin has not been attending the hearings, although he is a regular member of the commission. However, this morning it was necessary to send for him to come up to make out a quorum so that the hearing could proceed, a number of the State officers being detained for the time on other matters.

Chief Justice Walter Clark, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, who is a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator F. M. Simmons, will leave tomorrow for Toxaway to attend the North Carolina Bar Association, to be in annual session there. The senatorial contest has been decidedly quiet for some time since the entries have practically closed with Simmons, Kitchin, Aycock and Clark as the candidates, but it is expected that there will be some strenuous campaigning among the members of the Bar Association by friends of all four candidates, if all are not there in person.

BURGLAR ATTACKS WOMAN.

Boarding House Keeper at Weaversville Was Painfully Injured.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., June 26.—In an encounter with a burglar last night about 12:30 o'clock, Mrs. Simmons, who conducts a private boarding house at Weaverville, was struck on the back just below the shoulders with a weapon of some kind and painfully injured and is confined to her bed today and is said to be spitting up blood. Mrs. Simmons fired at the intruder five times with a 22-calibre rifle but apparently no injury was inflicted. Sheriff C. F. Williams, who lives at Weaverville, was sent for this morning and is now working on the case. He left for Weaverville on the 11 o'clock car and thinks he may have a clue to the burglar.

Mrs. Simmons was awakened by hearing some noise and went into the dining room from which the noise seemed to come. She had no more than entered the room when she was struck on the back, the person evidently aimed at her head. It was then that Mrs. Simmons seized the rifle and began firing at the unknown person. At the third shot the burglar dropped the swag that he had been collecting and took flight, and although Mrs. Simmons fired two more shots apparently they had no effect. It was found that the "swag" consisted of some silverware and an overcoat.

LAND OF BLUE HUCKLEBERRY.

Saturday's Sale at Faison Footed Up to $1,925—Fine Trucking Region.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Faison, N. C., June 26.—When the people in a community can go out "in the woods" and bring to market huckleberries that sell for $1,925 in one day, verily they have no cause to fear perishing. Such was the case at Faison, N. C., on Saturday, when upwards of 700 crates were sold for cash on the platform, and sent rushing to the Northern markets. In addition to this gift of the "wild lands," there were upwards of 1,000 additional packages, corn, beans, potatoes, peppers, cucumbers and plums. The quantity of fruits and vegetables that have been going forward from this point for the past two months, almost daily, have far exceeded this cash value mentioned. It is wonderful to realize, the great variety of "truck" crops that are being cultivated, and the neat sums of money realized. A great advantage the vicinity of Faison enjoys is the opportunity of realizing the actual cash "on the platform"—buyers as urgent as for the other staple crops. The West, nor even "fertile Canada," can offer no greater inducement for the pains-taking, energetic man, than this particular section.

FLOOD DOES GREAT DAMAGE.

5,000 Cattle Drowned, and Bridges Destroyed When Reservoir Breaks.

Grand Junction, Colo., June 26.—A reservoir containing 3,000 acre feet of water burst yesterday, causing a property damage of about $100,000.

Five thousand cattle were drowned and several bridges were swept away. No human lives were lost. Thomas Dwyer saw the break and telephoned warnings to ranches below. Along the path of the flood for fifteen miles crops were washed out.

Chicago, June 26.—J. J. McDermott, 21 years old, of Atlantic City, N. J., today won the open golf championship of the United States at the Chicago Golf Club, outplaying his two opponents with whom he tied last week. McDermott is the first American born player to win the open championship in the history of golf in America.

San Diego, Cal., June 26.—Explosions on the Submarine Pike this afternoon, caused by a "back fire" in the gasoline engine, severely burned F. W. Elliott, a chief machinist; J. Q. Jeffries, machinists' mate, and L. B. Walker. Elliott is the most severely injured, but will recover.

COOLER AFTER THE RAINS.

But Some Weather Stations Report Very High Temperatures.

Washington, June 26.—An area of low pressure, central over Iowa, has caused scattered local showers in the upper Mississippi valley. Good rains have fallen since Saturday over the lake region as far south as Tennessee and over several of the cotton growing States. Rains were very heavy in northern Ohio and portions of Tennessee, but dry weather continued over western Missouri, Kansas, the greater portion of Oklahoma and northwestern Texas.

Very high temperatures, ranging from 96 degrees to 104 degrees were registered on Saturday and Sunday over States west of the Mississippi river, extending as far as the Rocky Mountains and reaching from Minnesota to southern Texas while on Sunday 108 was registered at Dodge City, Kan. Brisk winds accompanied this intense heat over a large part of the Southwest. The barometric disturbance which has been moving slowly Eastward over the Rocky Mountain slope is this morning centered in the upped Mississippi and lower Mississippi valley.

The rains which have attended this disturbance west of the lake region have been followed by considerably cooler weather, somewhat lower temperatures prevailing this morning over the Northeastern States. It continues abnormally warm, however, in Missouri, Kansas and States farther south.

NO CABINET FORMED.

Will Probably Be Called on to Form New French Ministry.

Paris, June 26.—No decision has yet been taken with reference to the formation of a new French Cabinet. Immediately on his return from Rouen, this morning, President Fallieres visited Premier Monis, who is still confined to his room as the result of injuries received at the aerodrome several weeks ago.

M. Monis tendered to the President the resignation of the Cabinet. In doing so, he indicated that Joseph Caillaux, the Minister of Finance, in his opinion, was best fitted to succeed in the organization of a new ministry.

It is generally conceded that M. Caillaux will be summoned to the Elysee Palace tomorrow and invited to form a ministry. It is pointed out in political circles that the defeat of the government on Friday on a matter foreign to the general policy of the government in no way implies a change in the government's programme.

Wins Fight for Life.

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James B. Mershon, of Newark, N. J., of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was very weak and run-down. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels, when I began, three weeks ago, to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim." For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, la grippe, asthma, hayfever or any throat or lung trouble it is supreme. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

Remember, this is first come, first serve, and you are buying just as the new car line is finished, and before the first house is built. Building of houses (quite a number have already signed an agreement to build as soon as railroad facilities were furnished) will begin soon; then prices will rise. Let us tell you who the recent purchasers are. Let us show you the property now. Don't delay. Wright's Real Estate Agency. je25-2t
